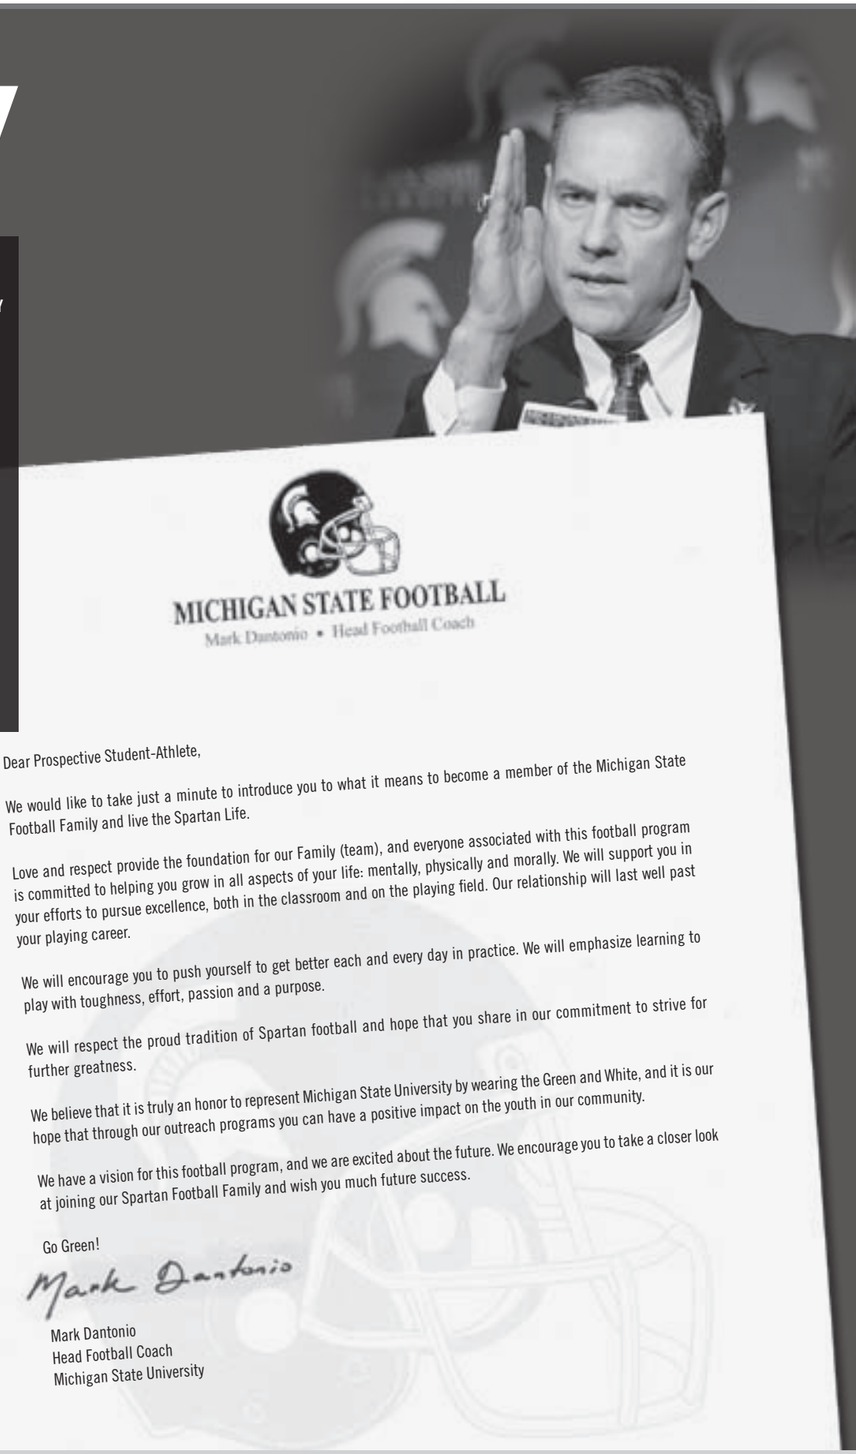
SPARTAN FAMILY



Dear Prospective Student-Athlete,

We would like to take just a minute to introduce you to what it means to become a member of the Michigan State Football Family and live the Spartan Life.

Love and respect provide the foundation for our Family (team), and everyone associated with this football program is committed to helping you grow in all aspects of your life: mentally, physically and morally. We will support you in your efforts to pursue excellence, both in the classroom and on the playing field. Our relationship will last well past your playing career.

We will encourage you to push yourself to get better each and every day in practice. We will emphasize learning to play with toughness, effort, passion and a purpose.

We will respect the proud tradition of Spartan football and hope that you share in our commitment to strive for further greatness.

We believe that it is truly an honor to represent Michigan State University by wearing the Green and White, and it is our hope that through our outreach programs you can have a positive impact on the youth in our community.

We have a vision for this football program, and we are excited about the future. We encourage you to take a closer look at joining our Spartan Football Family and wish you much future success.

Go Green!

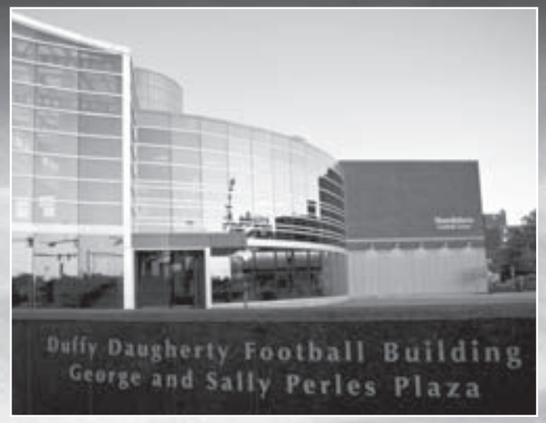
SKANDALARIS
FOOTBALL CENTER

The Michigan State football team moved into the $15.5 million Skandalaris Football Center this summer, giving the Spartans one of the nation's finest college football facilities. The 25,000-square-foot addition to the Duffy Daugherty Football Building took 14 months to complete.

The addition was made possible through the generous donation of MSU alumni Robert and Julie Skandalaris of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., who donated $5 million as the lead gift for this $12.5 million phase of the project. The structure features new team, staff and position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and The Demmer Family Hall of History.

Bob Skandalaris addresses a standing-room only crowd at the Aug. 21 dedication ceremony.



Former Spartan head coach George Perles and his wife Sally contributed $500,000 for the construction of a $1 million plaza outside the Duffy Daugherty Football Building.

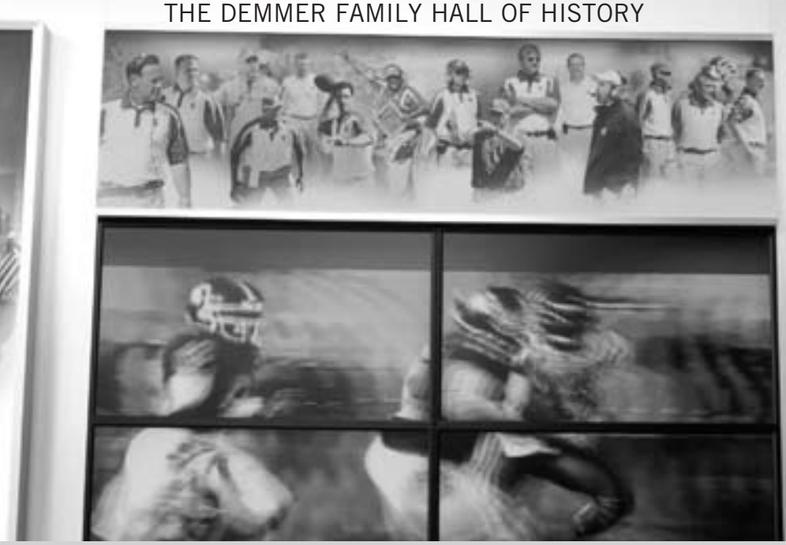
THE DEMMER FAMILY HALL OF HISTORY

The Demmer Family Hall of History provides a public display for MSU's rich football tradition. The display area is named in honor of John E. Demmer, William and Linda Demmer, Ed and Laura Demmer, all of Lansing, and Brad and Marguerite Demmer, from San Antonio, Texas, whose family gift is among the most significant made to the football facility project.



John Demmer, MSU President Lou Anna K. Simon, and members of MSU's Board of Trustees participate in a ribbon cutting ceremony to officially open The Demmer Family Hall of History in the Skandalaris Football Center.

The Demmer Family Hall of History recognizes MSU's six National Championship teams (1951, 1952, 1955, 1957, 1965 and 1966) with plaques, featuring a team photo and game-by-game results for each season.

FOOTBALL CENTER
THE DEMMER FAMILY HALL OF HISTORY

Located on the first floor, The Demmer Family Hall of History features four bay displays - each measuring nearly 13x12 feet - depicting: Great Teams, Great Players, Great Moments and a Great Future. This area includes four display cases for MSU's national award winners: Ed Bagdon (Outland Trophy), Brad Van Pelt (Maxwell Award), Percy Snow (Butkus and Lombardi Awards) and Charles Rogers (Biletnikoff Award). Hanging above the national award-winner display cases are banners, honoring MSU's four retired jerseys: No. 78 Don Coleman, No. 90 George Webster, No. 46 former MSU President John Hannah and No. 95 Charles "Bubba" Smith.

A 4x9-foot display salutes MSU's NFL Legends: Herb Adderley, Joe DeLamielleure, Bubba Smith, Brad Van Pelt, Earl Morrall, Carl Banks, Billy Joe DuPree and Morten Andersen. MSU's all-time pro roster is listed team-by-team, below half-mini helmets, on the wall outside the team meeting room.

Also in that hallway, a 14x9-foot wallpaper display honors current Spartans in the NFL, including: Plaxico Burress, pictured making the game-winning catch against New England in Super Bowl XLII and hoisting the Lombardi Trophy, Julian Peterson, Flozell Adams, Muhsin Muhammad and Derrick Mason.

The University's history is depicted on a wallpaper display, measuring 33x7 feet, including a message from President Lou Anna K. Simon to all prospective student-athletes that tour the facility.

Plaques, recognizing MSU's 76 first-team All-Americans, are displayed in the first-floor hallway between the team's locker room and team meeting room.

The latest technology is featured throughout the facility. All meeting and staff rooms are equipped with Crestron touch-panel displays that provide full control of all audio/visual equipment as well as telestration of any video source. This allows the coaches to switch between and control the team's XOS computer, DVD player, VHS player, document camera and video channels distributed from the video office. Instead of utilizing projectors, flat-panel displays have been installed, permitting student-athletes and coaches to study video with the room lights on, so they can refer to playbooks and scouting reports during the video session.

The Skandalaris Football Center also houses one of the largest computer servers on campus, allowing the coaches to access on the intranet: footage from every practice, MSU game video from the past five seasons, current opponents' game video as well as video of nearly 1,000 recruits.

The facility also is designed for efficiency, as the full team meeting area can be converted into (offense and defense) unit meeting rooms in a matter of seconds. In addition, the position meeting rooms are located in close proximity to the full team meeting room.

MICHIGAN STATE:

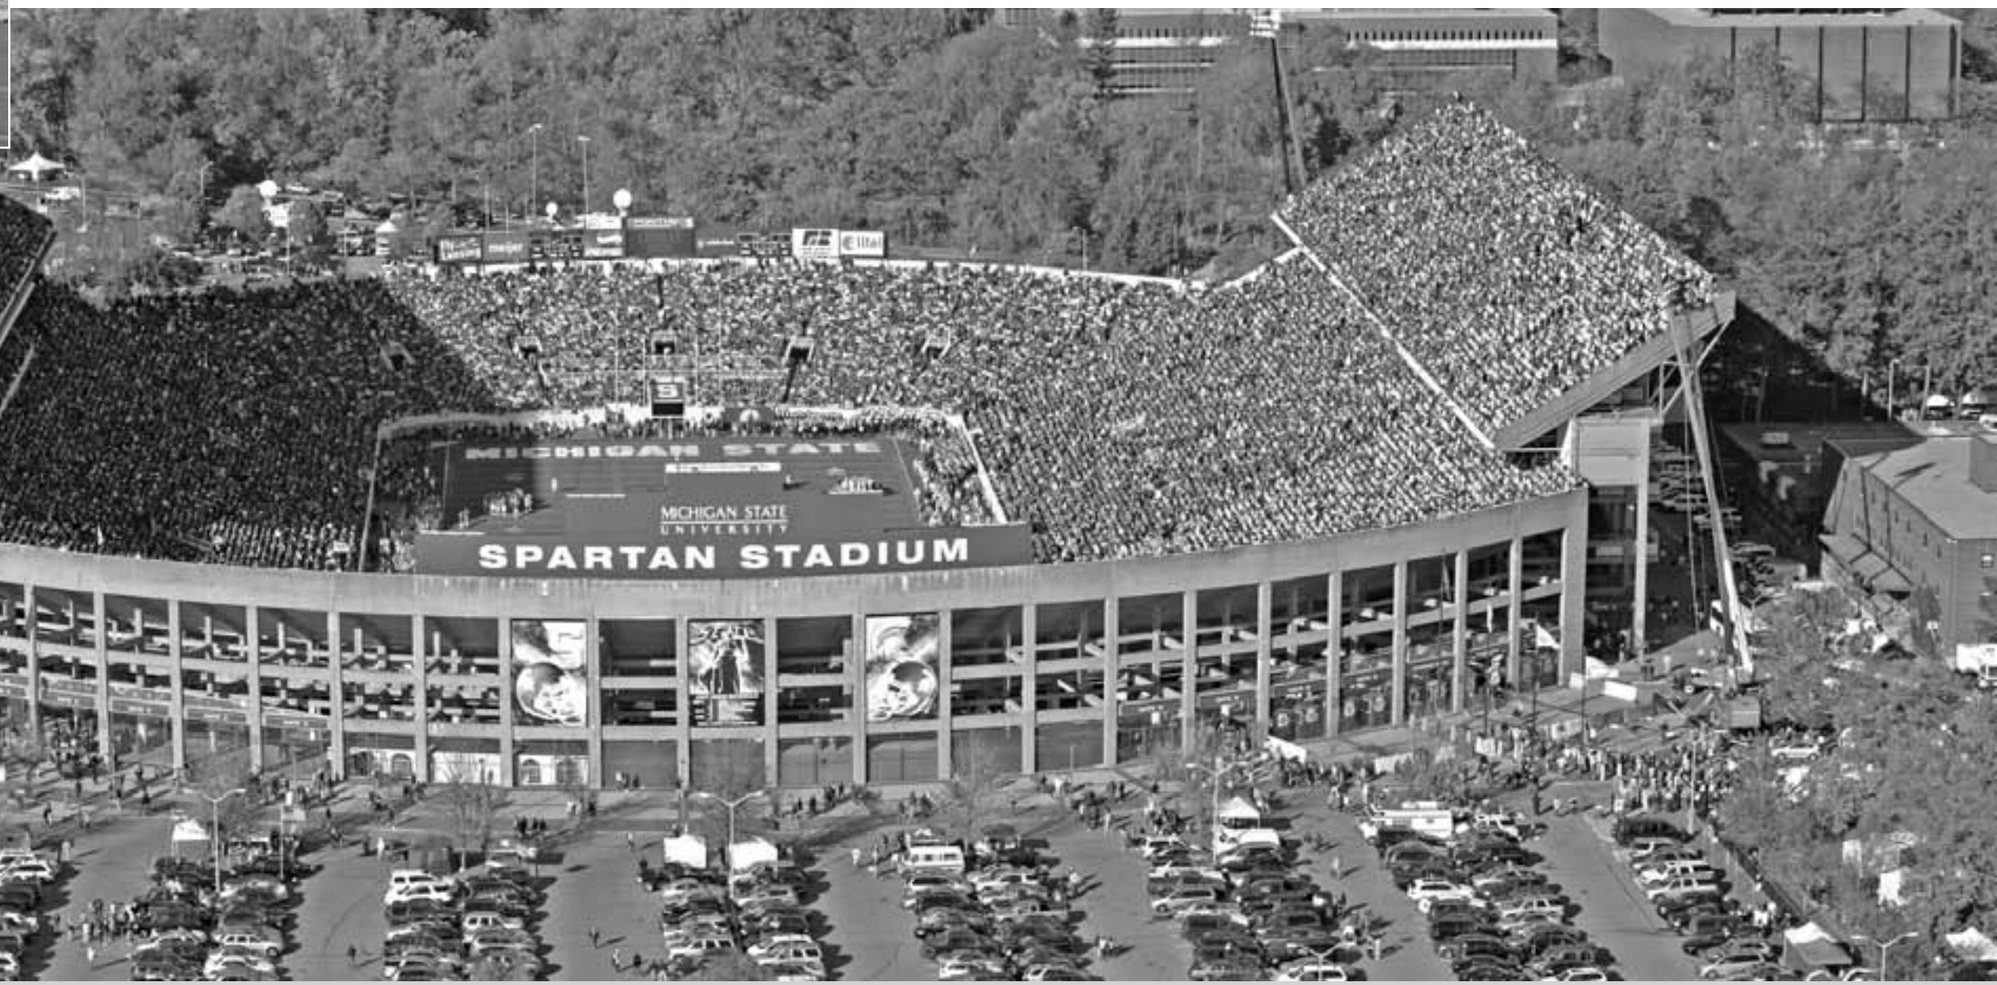
HAS RANKED AMONG THE NCAA'S TOP 25 IN ATTENDANCE EACH OF THE PAST 52 SEASONS, INCLUDING 22ND IN 2007, AVERAGING 70,540 FANS PER GAME.

SPARTAN: STADIUM

Prior to the 2002 season, ESPN.com's Mel Kiper Jr. ranked Spartan Stadium No. 8 on his list of the nation's most scenic venues.

Season-ticket sales have topped the 60,000 mark five times in Spartan football history.

Spartan Stadium is in its 85th season as home to Michigan State football.



SPARTAN SATURDAYS

THE WALK

One of Michigan State football's greatest traditions is "The Walk" on gameday. The team, which stays on campus at the nearby Kellogg Center, crosses the fabled banks of the Red Cedar River over a bridge near the hotel, then walks by Old College Field and in front of The Spartan statue before making its way into Spartan Stadium. Thousands of fans, along with the MSU Marching Band, line up two hours before the game to greet the team and cheer on the Spartans before kickoff.

Above and Left: Upon arriving at Spartan Stadium, the team – spanning the entire field – locks arms and crosses the length of the stadium turf toward the end zone.

Right: Prior to warm-ups, the team forms a phalanx and marches past the Spartan sideline, a symbol of unity in the final preparations before kickoff.

2008 OUTLOOK
OFFENSE

SEVEN STARTERS, HIGHLIGHTED BY SENIOR RUNNING BACK JAVON RINGER, RETURN TO THE SPARTAN OFFENSE THAT SET A SCHOOL RECORD WITH 430 POINTS SCORED IN 2007. UTILIZING A BALANCED ATTACK, MICHIGAN STATE WAS ONE OF JUST NINE SCHOOLS IN THE NCAA LAST YEAR TO AVERAGE AT LEAST 200 YARDS OR MORE IN BOTH RUSHING AND PASSING OFFENSE DURING THE REGULAR SEASON.

The right side of Michigan State's offensive line is set with veterans Jesse Miller and Roland Martin. That duo is responsible for 47 combined starting assignments.

MSU ranked third in the Big Ten and No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing offense last season, averaging 198.2 yards a game.

Mark Dell, who started eight games as a true freshman in 2007, was fifth on the team with 20 catches for 220 yards and two touchdowns in his first season.

Joel Nitchman, who appeared in 10 games last season with eight starts to his credit, returns as the starting center in 2008.

Andrew Hawken played in all 13 games in 2007 at fullback.

In his first year as a starting quarterback, Brian Hoyer completed 59 percent of his passes for 2,725 yards and 20 touchdowns.

Michigan State features one of the most dynamic running backs in the nation in Javon Ringer. Ringer enters his senior season ranked seventh on MSU's all-time rushing list with 2,761 career yards, and his 6.09 yards per carry ranks as the fourth-highest rushing average in school history. He rushed for a careehigh 1,447 yards as a junior, the fifth-best single-season total at MSU.

2008 OUTLOOK
DEFENSE

THE SPARTAN DEFENSE SAW MARKED IMPROVEMENT IN COACH DANTONIO'S FIRST SEASON, AS MICHIGAN STATE RANKED 11TH IN THE NATION IN TACKLES FOR LOSS, 14TH IN SACKS AND 30TH IN RUSHING DEFENSE. SEVEN STARTERS RETURN IN 2008, INCLUDING THREE-YEAR STARTERS JUSTIN KERSHAW AND OTIS WILEY.

With 19 starts to his credit, Otis Wiley anchors the Spartan secondary from the strong safety position. Wiley has recorded 161 career tackles, five interceptions and 15 pass break-ups.

Kendell Davis-Clark, who has appeared in 25 career games including 14 starts, led the Spartans with eight pass break-ups last season.

Greg Jones led all Big Ten freshman with 78 tackles last season en route to earning Freshman All-America honors.

Chris L. Rucker saw action in eight games, including four starts at field corner, as a true freshman last season.

Brandon Long played in all 13 games last season at defensive end with three starts, registering 18 tackles and 4.0 tackles for loss, including two sacks.

Justin Kershaw heads into his third season as a starter on the defensive line and his second at defensive tackle. In 2007, Kershaw set career highs for tackles (34), tackles for loss (5 for 9 yards) and sacks (1.5 for 4).

Eric Gordon started 10 games in 2007 and finished fourth on the defense in production points (154) and fifth in tackles (62).

2008 OUTLOOK

SPECIAL TEAMS

ALL THREE SPECIALISTS RETURN TO THE SPARTAN SPECIAL TEAMS UNIT THIS SEASON.

In two seasons, Brett Swenson has proved to be one of the best specialists in the Big Ten. He already ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in extra points (seventh with 86 made) and field goals (eighth with 30 made). He made a school record 53 PATs last season.

Todd Boleski returns for his fourth year as the kick-off specialist. Boleski averaged 63.5 yards a kick last season and had 10 touchbacks.

Aaron Bates won the starting job as a true freshman in 2007 and earned honorable mention Freshman All-America honors after averaging 39.7 yards on 69 punts, including 23 kicks downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

MARK DANTONIO
HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON

Mark Dantonio, who served as head coach at Cincinnati for three seasons and as an assistant coach at Michigan State for six years, became Michigan State University's 24th head football coach on Nov. 27, 2006.

A Zanesville, Ohio, native with Midwest ties, Dantonio has 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, and has coached in 11 bowl games. He has worked for some of the top coaches in the game, including Nick Saban, Jim Tressel and Earle Bruce.

In his first season as head coach at Michigan State, Dantonio restored the pride and tradition of Spartan football. Under his leadership, the Spartans finished the 2007 regular season with a 7-5 record, securing the program's first bowl bid in four years with a berth against Boston College in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, Fla. Dantonio became just the third first-year coach in Michigan State history to earn a postseason bowl bid, joining Nick Saban (1995 Independence Bowl vs. LSU) and John L. Smith (2003 Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska).

Michigan State (7-6 overall) produced seven victories despite playing one of the nation's most demanding schedules, as the Spartans' 2007 opponents had a combined record of 75-57 (.568) during the regular season. The Spartans went 4-3 in games played against bowl-bound teams in 2007. Michigan State lost six games by a combined total of 31 points, including two in overtime (Northwestern and Iowa). All six games were decided by seven points or less.

Michigan State finished the year strong, winning its final two games of the regular season for the first time since 1999 with victories at Purdue and over Penn State, both bowl-bound teams. Dantonio became the first coach in Spartan history to begin his initial season 4-0, as Michigan State opened the 2007 campaign with wins over UAB, Bowling Green, Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. With the 31-14 victory over the Irish, the Spartans became the first opponent to win six-straight games in the 77-year history of Notre Dame Stadium.

In 2007, Michigan State featured one of the Big Ten's most prolific offensive attacks. The Spartans ranked second in the conference in scoring offense (33.1 points per game), third in rushing offense (198.2 yards per game) and fourth in total offense (416.8 ypg.). Michigan State also was listed among the NCAA's top 30 in rushing offense (No. 25) and scoring offense (No. 29). The Spartans scored a school single-season record 430 points and produced top 10 single-season totals in six other offensive categories, including total yards (No. 3: 5,418), first downs (No. 4: 266), passing yards (No. 5: 2,842), total yards per game (No. 6: 416.8) and scoring average (No. 6: 33.1 ppg.).

Michigan State also displayed dramatic improvement on the defensive side of the football in 2007. The Spartans ranked fourth in the Big Ten and No. 30 nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 125.9 ypg. Michigan State held four opponents under 50 yards rushing (UAB, Bowling Green, Indiana and Boston College). After finishing eighth in the Big Ten and No. 88 nationally in total defense in 2006, the Spartans improved to fourth in the league and No. 32 in the NCAA, allowing 345.5 ypg. After finishing near the bottom of the conference in tackles for loss (ninth) and sacks (10th) in 2006, Michigan State vaulted to third in the Big Ten in tackles for loss (7.69 per game) and fourth in sacks (3.08).

Jonal Saint-Dic, one of eight finalists for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award, earned first-team All-Big Ten and second-team Walter Camp All-America honors in 2007. Saint-Dic ranked fourth in the Big Ten in sacks (0.83 per game) and ninth in tackles for loss (1.21) while setting the conference single-season record with eight forced fumbles.

Three other Spartans garnered second-team All-Big Ten honors: running back Javon Ringer (coaches and media), wide receiver Devin Thomas (coaches and media) and offensive tackle Pete Clifford (media).

Linebacker Greg Jones, a consensus Freshman All-American, became the first true freshman to lead the Spartans in tackles (78 in 2007) since Dan Bass (111 stops) in 1976.

From his first day on the job, Coach Dantonio has pledged to support student-athletes as they pursue excellence, both in the classroom and on the playing field. Last fall, eight Spartans earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, including fullback Andrew Hawken and linebacker Kaleb Thornhill, who also were selected to the Academic All-District IV Second Team by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The 52-year old Dantonio established himself as one of the nation's up-and-coming coaches during his three-year tenure at Cincinnati, where he compiled an 18-17 overall record and led the program in its transition to the BIG EAST Conference.

In 2006, Dantonio led the Bearcats to a 7-5 overall record and a 4-3 BIG EAST mark, making Cincinnati bowl eligible for the second time in three years. Dantonio accomplished the feat against the second-toughest schedule in the country, as UC's opponents compiled a 69-42 record. Four of UC's five losses came to ranked teams (Ohio State, Louisville, Virginia Tech and West Virginia). His Bearcats upset then-No. 7 Rutgers, 30-11, on Nov. 18, handing the Scarlet Knights their first loss of the season and marking the highest-ranked opponent ever defeated by UC.

Highly respected as one of the top defensive coaches in the country, Dantonio's Bearcats finished the 2006 regular season ranked among the NCAA leaders in six statistical categories: No. 21 in tackles for loss (6.8 per game), No. 23 in pass efficiency defense (109.3 rating), No. 27 in rushing defense (107.5 ypg.), No. 31 in total defense (304.3 ypg.), No. 34 in scoring defense (19.3 ppg.) and No. 34 in sacks (2.4 per game). UC held seven of its 12 regular-season opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, highlighted by performances of 36 yards each in back-to-back games against Miami-Ohio and Akron. In the win over Rutgers, Cincinnati held the nation's No. 15 rushing offense to a season-low 50 yards on the ground, and limited the NCAA's No. 3 rusher, Ray Rice, to a season-low 54 yards. Defensive end Trevor Anderson ranked among the BIG EAST leaders in tackles for loss (No. 5 at 1.13 per game) and sacks (No. 6 at 0.5 per game).

Six Bearcats earned All-BIG EAST honors in 2006, including three first-team selections: defensive tackle Terrill Byrd, linebacker Kevin McCullough and free safety Dominic Ross. Three UC players received second-team all-conference honors, including offensive guard Trevor Canfield, tight end Brent Celek and cornerback Mike Mickens.

In 2005, Dantonio brought together one of the nation's youngest teams, with the Bearcats starting as many as five first-year freshmen on defense and posted a competitive 4-7 record in the program's first season in the BIG EAST.

In 2004, he became the first head coach in 23 years to direct a team to a winning season in his first year at UC. Dantonio also became only the second head coach in Cincinnati history (along with Sid Gillman) to take the Bearcats to a bowl game in his first season. The Bearcats' went 7-5 in 2004, including a 5-3 mark in Conference USA to finish second in the league standings, and defeated Marshall (32-14) in the Fort Worth Bowl. Cincinnati led C-USA and ranked No. 26 in the NCAA in pass defense, allowing 194.2 yards per game. The Bearcats also ranked second in C-USA in total defense (341.3 ypg.) and third in both scoring defense (26.7 ppg.) and pass efficiency defense (121.5). Offensively, quarterback Gino Guidugli ranked

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH DANTONIO

MSU MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH TOM IZZO:

"Mark Dantonio is the right coach for Michigan State University. He's a guy that's dying to be here. And just as important, he understands Michigan State and knows that we are dying to experience great success in football.

"Being a football coach is a multi-dimensional job. Like any major hire, you can't get the best in just one dimension. They've done a great job getting the best coach that can handle all the different aspects that you have to handle as football coach."

OHIO STATE HEAD FOOTBALL COACH JIM TRESSEL:

"I am so proud to have Mark Dantonio back in the Big Ten. It's a little bit like when one of your players receives his degree or is a first-round draft choice. You just feel good about what they have accomplished. Mark will build a great program and will do a great job. We are looking forward to competing against him, but the neighborhood just got tougher."

ALABAMA HEAD COACH NICK SABAN:

"First, Mark Dantonio is a great family man. Second, he brings honesty and integrity to the Spartan football program – something Michigan State expects and deserves. In addition, Mark brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the head coaching position.

"He's familiar with Michigan State, having spent six years there as an assistant coach. He's familiar with the Big Ten, having coached at Michigan State and Ohio State. More importantly, Mark has been involved with winning football programs, including being a part of a National Championship at Ohio State. He's also had an opportunity to run his own program at Cincinnati and his teams had a reasonable amount of success.

"While serving as an assistant at Michigan State, Mark was one of the top recruiters on the coaching staff. He knows the MSU academic and campus community. He also has ties to Ohio and other parts of the Midwest, which is so important in recruiting. Mark really has the right blend for Michigan State. This is a great opportunity for Michigan State, and I hope everyone gets behind Mark and pulls together.

ESPN COLOR ANALYST AND FORMER OHIO STATE ALL-AMERICAN CHRIS SPIELMAN:

"Mark Dantonio is the right man, for the right job at the right time. I predicted Mark's hire as soon as the position became available. When you look at the situation, this is a perfect hire. Mark has Michigan State bloodlines, so he's emotionally invested in the football program. Mark is a no-nonsense coach that demands attention to detail. I'm also convinced that his teams will play harder than any past Spartan football teams.

"Mark isn't the right guy if you're looking to hire a talk-show host, but he is the right guy if you're looking for a winning football coach."

FORMER SPARTAN AND CURRENT SEATTLE SEAHAWK LINEBACKER JULIAN PETERSON:

"I can't tell you how excited I am about the future of Spartan football. The program is in great hands because Mark Dantonio is a great motivator who really knows how to relate to his players. He knows how to bring the best out of his players. I can honestly tell you that Mark is the main reason I chose to attend Michigan State, and it's the best decision I've made.

"Mark really promotes a family atmosphere for the players. He took a personal interest in me and helped me grow in every aspect of my life. Mark had as big an impact on my everyday life as he did on my development as a football player. That's why he's so well respected by his players."

FORMER SPARTAN AND CURRENT SEATTLE SEAHAWK RUNNING BACK T.J. DUCKETT:

"With Mark Dantonio in charge, the Michigan State football program is headed in the right direction. He will re-establish the Spartan brand of football. Rest assured, his teams will play physical on both sides of the football. I look forward to seeing the return of the power running game to go along with a hard-nosed defense that swarms the football. His teams will play hard for 60 minutes and every team on the schedule with walk off the field knowing that they were involved in a heavyweight battle. I'm confident that Coach Dantonio will put Spartan football back on the national map. It's simply a matter of time."

FORMER SPARTAN AND CURRENT MIAMI DOLPHIN FREE SAFETY RENALDO HILL:

"I'm really excited about the hire. Coach Dantonio was my position coach at Michigan State, so I know first hand that he's a good coach.

"I was impressed with what he accomplished in a very short time at Cincinnati. I'm confident that he will attract quality athletes to East Lansing because Michigan State has a lot of positives to sell.

"Coach Dantonio is a no-nonsense type guy, so discipline will return to the football program. The student-athletes will be held accountable in everything they do, both on and off the field. With his approach, I'm sure Michigan State will be back on top of the Big Ten standings soon. The guys will respond to him because he cares about the total person, not just the football player."

FORMER SPARTAN LINEBACKER KALEB THORNHILL:

"Mark Dantonio is so much more than a football coach; he's a life coach. His desire is to help you improve every aspect of your life, and with his approach, he helps bring discipline to every aspect of your life. Coach Dantonio wants each student-athlete to be successful in the classroom, in the community and on the playing field.

"He is one of the best motivational speakers I have ever heard. It's remarkable the way he can bring 105 guys – all from different backgrounds – together to pursue a common goal. Coach Dantonio finds ways to motivate, knowing full well that the message can't be the same from week to week. That's why everybody is buying into this football program, and that's why it's going to be successful for the long haul."

FORMER SPARTAN QUARTERBACK BILL BURKE:

"I think Mark coming back is extremely important to former players. He alluded to the fact that he wants to be here, him and his family. He's a former Spartan, and he feels like he's coming home and we as former Spartans are excited to have him back. I think he's a tough disciplinarian as much off the field as he is on the field. He cares about you as a player, and I think he's going to bring back certain philosophies that Michigan State needs to have in place in order to produce wins on the field. His expectations are high, which they should be, and it's exciting as a former player to know that we have a guy here who wants to compete for championships. Mark is a very detail oriented guy, so you know as a player that you're going to be held accountable for everything on the field and off the field, and I think that is where the pursuit of championships starts."

15th in the country in passing efficiency (146.5) and directed the Bearcats to the 30th-ranked offense in the nation (405.6 ypg). Three players were chosen in the 2005 NFL Draft (defensive end Trent Cole, linebacker Tyjuan Hagler and cornerback Daven Holly).

In his three seasons at Cincinnati, 21 of Dantonio's players earned All-BIG EAST honors and 40 received academic all-conference recognition. In back-to-back years (2006-07), Cincinnati's program was presented the American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award for attaining a graduation rate of at least 70 percent for its student-athletes.

Prior to his appointment at Cincinnati, Dantonio served as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State for three seasons, where his defensive unit helped the Buckeyes to a combined record of 32-6.

Dantonio assembled the defense which led Ohio State to the 2002 National Championship, as the Buckeyes ranked second in the NCAA in scoring defense (13.1 ppg) and third in rushing defense (77.7 ypg.). Six Buckeye defenders were named first-team All-Big Ten during his tenure and 13 were drafted by the pros, including a pair of first-round selections in 2004 (defensive end Will Smith and cornerback Chris Gamble).

Dantonio is quite familiar with East Lansing, as he spent six years (1995-2000) as Michigan State's secondary coach, including five seasons under Saban and one under Bobby Williams. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2000. During his six-year tenure as an assistant, the Spartans compiled a 39-30-1 record.

Under his supervision, the Spartan secondary ranked among the NCAA leaders in pass efficiency defense three of his last four years, finishing No. 10 (101.6) in 1998, No. 16 (103.9) in 1997 and No. 22 (104.5) in 2000. In his last season as secondary coach, the Spartans only allowed 164.1 yards a game through the air, ranking seventh in the country in 2000.

Dantonio contributed to Michigan State's successful 1999 season, during which the Spartans went 10-2, won the Florida Citrus Bowl, led the Big Ten in total defense and ranked No. 7 in the final polls. He tutored cornerback Amp Campbell, who earned third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press.

Dantonio came to Michigan State following four seasons under Glen Mason at Kansas (1991-94) where he coached the defensive secondary. In 1992, the Jayhawks produced an 8-4 record and defeated BYU, 23-20, in the Aloha Bowl.

Dantonio previously spent five years at Youngstown State under Tressel, helping the Penguins to three trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs. While serving as defensive coordinator in 1990, Youngstown State posted a perfect 11-0 regular-season record and ranked second nationally.

His coaching credits also including stops at Akron (defensive secondary, 1985), Ohio State (graduate assistant, 1983-84), Butler (Kan.) Junior College (defensive coordinator, 1982), Purdue (graduate assistant, 1981) and Ohio University (graduate assistant, 1980). During his stint as a graduate assistant under Earle Bruce at Ohio State, the Buckeyes played in the 1983 Fiesta and 1984 Rose Bowls.

Dantonio earned three letters as a defensive back for Coach Jim Carlen at South Carolina (1976-78). He earned a bachelor's degree in education from South Carolina in 1979. Dantonio later earned a master's degree in education from Ohio U. in 1980.

Born March 9, 1956, in El Paso, Texas, Mark and his wife Becky have two daughters, Kristen (15) and Lauren (13).

Coach Dantonio threw out the first pitch at the Detroit Tigers game July 9 at Comerica Park.

The Dantonio Family: Kristen, Lauren, Mark and Becky.

DON TREADWELL
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/WIDE RECEIVERS

SECOND SEASON (FIFTH OVERALL)

Coach Dantonio on Don Treadwell:

"Don Treadwell brings almost 25 years of coaching experience to the table. He's extremely composed, both in his teaching on the practice field and in terms of his play calling on game days. He is an outstanding role model for our student-athletes."

Don Treadwell, one of eight assistants to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to Michigan State, is in his second season as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Treadwell, a 24-year coaching veteran, has been an offensive coordinator at four schools, including three years on Coach Dantonio's staff at Cincinnati (2004-06). Along with Dantonio, he also has experience in East Lansing, serving as the Spartan receivers coach from 2000-02.

In his first season as offensive coordinator at Michigan State in 2007, Treadwell guided one of the most balanced offensive attacks in the Big Ten, as the Spartans were one of two Big Ten teams and one of nine teams in the NCAA to average at least 200 yards or more in both rushing offense and passing offense during the regular season. The Spartans were among the Big Ten leaders in scoring offense (No. 2 at 33.1 points a game), rushing offense (No. 3 at 198.2 ypg.), total offense (No. 4 at 416.8 ypg.) and passing offense (No. 6 at 218.6 ypg.). It was one of the most productive offensive seasons in school history as the Spartans ranked first in points scored (430), third in total offense (5,418 yards), fifth in passing yards (2,842 yards), and sixth in scoring average (33.1) and total yards per game (416.8) in the school record books. In addition, MSU became the first Football Bowl Subdivision team in 2007 to feature a 2,000-yard passer (Brian Hoyer), a 1,000-yard rusher (Javon Ringer) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Devin Thomas), as the feat was accomplished in Game 11 against Purdue.

Six Spartans earned All-Big Ten honors on the offensive side of the ball, including consensus second-team selections Ringer and Thomas. Ringer rushed for 1,447 yards, the fifth-best mark in MSU single-season history, while Thomas established school records in receptions (79) and all-purpose yards (2,590). Thomas' record-breaking season propelled him to become a second-round pick in the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, while tight end Kellen Davis was selected in the fifth round by the Chicago Bears.

The Treadwell Family: Spencer, Blake, Lola, Don and Whittney.

THE TREADWELL FILE

YEARS AT MICHIGAN STATE: Fifth overall. Rejoined staff on Nov. 30, 2006, from Cincinnati.

EDUCATION: Bachelor's degree in physical education from Miami-Ohio in 1982.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: College – Four-year starter as a wide receiver at Miami-Ohio (1978-81) and named captain as a senior.

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE: Coach – 1987 NCAA I-AA Playoffs, 1989 NCAA I-AA Playoffs, 1990 NCAA I-AA Playoffs, 1991 NCAA I-AA National Champions, 1995 Liberty Bowl, 1996 Sun Bowl, 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl, 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic, 2004 Fort Worth Bowl, 2007 Champs Sports Bowl.

PAT NARDUZZI
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

SECOND SEASON

Pat Narduzzi is in his second year as defensive coordinator at Michigan State.

Michigan State's defense saw marked improvement in 2007 under Narduzzi's direction. The Spartans recorded 40 sacks, 24 more than it produced the entire 2006 season. In fact, the 40 sacks were the third-highest total in MSU single-season history and exceeded the Spartans' combined sack totals for the previous two seasons (32). The Spartans ranked fourth in the Big Ten (tied) and No. 14 in the NCAA, averaging 3.08 sacks a game. By comparison, the Spartans finished 10th in the conference and No. 103 nationally in sacks in 2006, averaging just 1.33 per game. MSU also finished third in the conference and 11th in the nation in tackles for loss with 7.69 per game. In addition, MSU ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 30th nationally in rushing defense (125.8 yards per game).

Three Spartans garnered All-Big Ten accolades on the defensive side of the ball, including first-team selection (defensive end) Jonal Saint-Dic, who set a Big Ten single-season record and led the nation with eight forced fumbles. Defensive end Ervin Baldwin led the team with 18.5 tackles for losses, the second-best total in school history, and was taken in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. Linebacker Greg Jones proved to be one of the top newcomers in the country, earning consensus Freshman All-America honors after leading the team with 78 tackles.

Coach Dantonio on Pat Narduzzi:

"Pat Narduzzi brings a wealth of defensive knowledge to the position. He's extremely energetic, a great motivator and pays great attention to detail. Those are the qualities that make Pat an outstanding defensive coordinator."

The Narduzzi Family: Pat, Donna, Isabella and Christina (seated); Arianna and Patrick (standing).

THE NARDUZZI FILE

YEARS AT MICHIGAN STATE: Second. Joined staff on Dec. 6, 2006, from Cincinnati.

PREVIOUS COACHING EXPERIENCE: College – Graduate assistant coach (1990-91) and receivers coach (1992) at Miami-Ohio; linebackers (1993-97) and defensive coordinator (1998-99) at Rhode Island; linebackers coach at Northern Illinois (2000-02); defensive coordinator at Miami-Ohio (2003); defensive coordinator at Cincinnati (2004-06).

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: College – Three-year starter at linebacker at Rhode Island (1987-89); one year at linebacker at Youngstown State (1985).

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE: Coach – 2003 GMAC Bowl, 2004 Fort Worth Bowl, 2007 Champs Sports Bowl.

HARLON BARNETT
SECONDARY COACH

SECOND SEASON

Coach Dantonio on Harlon Barnett:

"As a former Spartan, Harlon Barnett is an outstanding mentor and role model for our student-athletes because he has already walked in their shoes. He also played seven seasons in the National Football League. Although he's relatively young, Harlon has been influenced by the coaching of Nick Saban, Bill Belichick and Tony Dungy."

Harlon Barnett, a four-year letterwinner at Michigan State (1986-89) as a defensive back who was named a captain as a senior, enters his second season as the Spartans' secondary coach. Barnett returned to East Lansing with seven years of professional playing experience and nine seasons of coaching experience under his belt.

In his first season at MSU, Barnett led a secondary that ranked fourth in the Big Ten in pass defense. Under his direction, former walk-on turned team captain Travis Key earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in his first year as a starter, as Key ranked third on the team in tackles (69) and second in pass break-ups (6) and interceptions (2). He also tutored boundary corner Kendell Davis-Clark, who led the team in pass break-ups with eight and ranked second on the team in tackles with 72, and free safety Otis Wiley, who led the team with four interceptions. Seven different players combined for 12 interceptions, the most for a Spartan team since 2003.

The Barnett Family: Tammy, Tori, Todd and Harlon.

THE BARNETT FILE

RUNNING BACKS

THIRD SEASON

Dan Enos, a four-year football letterman (1987-90) and two-year starter (1989-90) at quarterback at Michigan State, begins his third year as a member of the Spartan coaching staff and his second season as running backs coach. The 40-year-old Enos is in his second stint as an assistant coach under Mark Dantonio, having previously served as the quarterbacks coach at Cincinnati from 2004-05.

In his first season coaching Spartan running backs, Enos mentored one of the top backfields in the Big Ten in Jehuu Caulcrick and Javon Ringer. Michigan State ranked third in the Big Ten and No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing offense, averaging 198.2 yards a game, an improvement of 69 yards per game over 2006. Ringer, a second-team All-Big Ten pick, and Caulcrick, an honorable mention selection, combined to rush for 2,319 yards and 27 touchdowns in 2007. Ringer led the Spartans in rushing for the third-straight season with 1,447 yards, the fifth-best single-season total in MSU history, while Caulcrick set an MSU record with 21 rushing touchdowns.

In his role as quarterbacks coach in 2006, Enos mentored Drew Stanton, who earned team MVP honors after accounting for 2,252 total yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior. Stanton, who was selected by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the 2007 NFL Draft, finished his career ranked among MSU's all-time leaders in completion percentage (first at .642), pass completions (second at 543), pass attempts (second at 846), passing yards (second at 6,524), total offense (second at 8,036 yards), 200-yard passing games (second at 18), passing efficiency rating (third at 138.7) and TD passes (fifth at 42).

Coach Dantonio on Dan Enos:

"Another former Spartan, Dan Enos was an outstanding quarterback here. He has a wealth of knowledge and experience as an offensive coordinator, plus he's coached every skill position on the offensive side of the football."

The Enos Family: Dan, Alex, Jane and Idalia.

TED GILL
DEFENSIVE LINE

SECOND SEASON

Coach Dantonio on Ted Gill:

"Ted Gill has an outstanding resume with more than 30 years of coaching experience, including stints in the National Football League and Big Ten. He's a great mentor for his players. Ted has coached some outstanding defensive lineman during his career, including Trent Cole, who is in his fourth year as a starter for the Philadelphia Eagles."

Ted Gill, one of eight assistant coaches to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to Michigan State, is in his second year as defensive line coach.

Michigan State's defensive line saw a dramatic improvement in just one season under the tutelage of Gill. Defensive ends Jonal Saint-Dic and Ervin Baldwin enjoyed breakout seasons, while nose tackles Justin Kershaw and Ogemdi Nwagbuo also had their most productive years wearing the Green and White.

Saint-Dic, a first-team All-Big Ten selection, set a Big Ten record and led the nation with eight forced fumbles. The senior ranked fourth in the conference and 16th in the NCAA in sacks with 10, marking the sixth-best total on MSU's single-season chart. For his efforts, Saint-Dic was named a second-team Walter Camp All-American and was one of eight finalists for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award.

Baldwin, a seventh-round draft choice by the Chicago Bears, led the team and ranked third in the Big Ten with 18.5 tackles for loss, which was the second-highest total in school history. Kershaw and Nwagbuo each recorded career highs with 30 and 28 tackles, respectively.

The Gill Family: Ted and Pamela.

DAN ROUSHAR
OFFENSIVE LINE

SECOND SEASON

Dan Roushar, one of eight assistants to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to Michigan State, is in his second year coaching the offensive line. He has coached a multitude of positions in his 24 seasons in the coaching profession.

Michigan State was one of the top rushing teams in the nation during the 2007 regular season, thanks in large part to the offensive line. Roushar had to juggle his lineup several times, using eight different starting combinations, but he led his unit to be one of the most productive in the Big Ten as the Spartans ranked fourth in the conference and No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing with 198.2 yards a game.

Roushar arrived in East Lansing after serving as offensive line coach under Coach Dantonio at Cincinnati for two seasons (2005-06).

Coach Dantonio on Dan Roushar:

"As a football coach, Dan Roushar pays great attention to detail. He's another former offensive coordinator, who also happens to be an excellent recruiter. Dan shows great care for our student-athletes – all you have to do is look at how he's handled the situation with Arthur Ray Jr."

The Roushar Family: Marissa, Dan, Maura, Mallory, Dan and Patti.

MARK STATEN
TIGHT ENDS/TACKLES/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

SECOND SEASON

Coach Dantonio on Mark Staten:

"I first developed a relationship with Mark Staten when he served as a graduate assistant at Ohio State. He's an outstanding coach and recruiting coordinator. Mark is extremely intelligent and a hard worker. He brings great energy not only to the meeting rooms but also to the practice field."

Mark Staten, who adds a mix of professional playing experience with a solid coaching background, begins his second season as tight ends/tackles coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State. Staten is one of eight assistant coaches to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to East Lansing.

Staten played an instrumental role in helping the Spartan offensive line become one of the best units in the Big Ten last season. He tutored left tackle Pete Clifford, who went on to earn second-team All-Big Ten honors.

With the tight end position playing more of a prominent role in MSU's new offensive system, Staten also helped Kellen Davis have his most productive year as a Spartan. Davis, a fifth-round NFL Draft pick by the Chicago Bears, recorded career-highs in receptions (32), receiving yards (513) and touchdowns (6) in 2007.

The Staten Family: Quinn, Mark and Dana.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: College – Four-year starter as a defensive tackle at Miami-Ohio (1989-92). Professional – Spent parts of two seasons in the National Football League, with the Cincinnati Bengals (1993) and New England Patriots (1993-94).

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE: Coach – 2003 Fiesta, 2004 Fiesta, 2004 Fort Worth, 2007 Champs Sports Bowl.

MIKE TRESSEL
LINEBACKERS/SPECIAL TEAMS

SECOND SEASON

Mike Tressel, one of eight assistant coaches to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to Michigan State, enters his second season as linebackers and special teams coach.

In his role as linebackers coach, Tressel mentored Greg Jones, who earned consensus Freshman All-America honors after leading the team and all Big Ten freshmen with 78 tackles. Jones became the first true freshman to lead Michigan State in tackles since 1976. Senior captain Kaleb Thornhill, who started 34 games in a row, maintained his presence with 64 tackles and a career-high 10 tackles for loss. In addition, Eric Gordon ranked fifth on the team with 62 tackles to garner Big Ten All-Freshman honors.

Tressel comes from a bloodline of successful coaches, as his uncle Jim Tressel won four NCAA I-AA championships at Youngstown State before leading Ohio State to the 2002 National Championship. His grandfather, Lee Tressel, ranked as one of the winningest coaches in Division III history and won a National Championship at Baldwin-Wallace College. His father Richard, who spent 23 seasons as head coach at Hamline, is in his eighth season at Ohio State, his fifth year as running backs coach.

Coach Dantonio on Mike Tressel:

"Mike Tressel followed me from Ohio State to Cincinnati, so he's been in our defensive system for five years. He's extremely intelligent and brings a unique perspective to the defensive staff because he also previously served as an offensive coordinator. Mike is also an outstanding recruiter and special teams coordinator."

The Tressel Family: Quincy, Logan, Megan and Mike.

DAVE WARNER
QUARTERBACKS

SECOND SEASON

Coach Dantonio on Dave Warner:

"Dave Warner is another guy that brings the experience of an offensive coordinator to the staff. He has coached almost every position on the offensive side of the football, and he's a good recruiter. As a former quarterback, he displays great composure, so he has a calming effect on our players."

Dave Warner, one of eight assistants to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to Michigan State, is in his second year as quarterbacks coach. Warner has been a quarterbacks coach and/or offensive coordinator or passing game coordinator for 19 of his previous 24 seasons as a college assistant.

Warner mentored Brian Hoyer in his first year as the starting quarterback, and the junior responded by enjoying one of the most productive offensive seasons in school history. Under Warner's direction, Hoyer ranked among the Big Ten leaders in passing efficiency (fifth with his 131.9 rating), passing yards (fifth at 209.6 ypg.) and total offense (seventh at 201.5 ypg.).

Hoyer became the fifth Spartan quarterback to eclipse the 2,500-yard milestone in a season and finished with 2,725 passing yards, the third-highest single-season total in MSU history. Hoyer also ranked among the top Spartan single-season leaders in completions (third with 223), pass attempts (second with 376) and TD passes (tied for fourth with 20).

The Warner Family: Alexandra, Leigh Ann, Jackson and Dave.

KEN MANNIE
HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

14TH SEASON

Ken Mannie enters his 14th year as Michigan State's head strength and conditioning coach for football, while additionally directing and overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for all men's and women's sports.

Mannie is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), the National Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (NSCA) and holds an honorary certification with the International Association of Resistance Trainers (IART). In May 2002 at its annual conference in Salt Lake City, the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association awarded Mannie the title of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) in recognition of his credentials, professionalism, expertise, longevity and contributions to the field. He is also a professional member of the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM), the National Association for Sport and Physical Education (NASPE), and the American Association for Health Education (AAHE).

Mannie has served as a consultant to several NFL teams on training equipment, program design, and the organization and administration of testing protocols. He has trained a host of collegiate players who went on to have highly successful NFL careers.

Coach Dantonio on Ken Mannie:

"With 14 years under his belt, Ken Mannie has longevity in the Michigan State football program. He provides the tough love that our student-athletes need. Ken is very demanding, yet very caring. He cares deeply about the players in the program. There is a remarkable number of former players who make it a point to swing by the office and visit with Coach Mannie whenever they're in town."

The Mannie Family: Marianne, Alaina and Ken.

TIM ALLEN
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

FIRST SEASON

Tim Allen, who previously worked together with Spartan head coach Mark Dantonio and quarterbacks coach Dave Warner at Kansas in the early 1990s, is in his first season as director of football operations at Michigan State.

The 49-year-old Allen previously spent 19 seasons on Glen Mason's coaching staff at Kansas (1988-96) and Minnesota (1997-2006).

Allen comes to Michigan State following 10 years at Minnesota where he served as assistant athletics director for football operations. During his tenure, the Golden Gophers made seven postseason bowl appearances, including five straight trips from 2002-06, and finished ranked among the nation's Top 25 on two occasions (1999: ESPN/USA TODAY No. 17 and Associated Press No. 18; 2003: No. 17 ESPN/USA TODAY and AP No. 20). From 1999-2005, Minnesota averaged better than seven wins per season (50 total).

Coach Dantonio on Tim Allen:

"Tim Allen brings a wealth of experience to the position, with 20 years in the Big Ten and Big 12 under his belt. I had the pleasure of working alongside Tim for four years at Kansas in the early 1990s. He has impressed me with his work ethic and attention to detail."

The Allen Family: Rochelle and Tim (front center); Brooke, Brianna, Brett and Brandon.

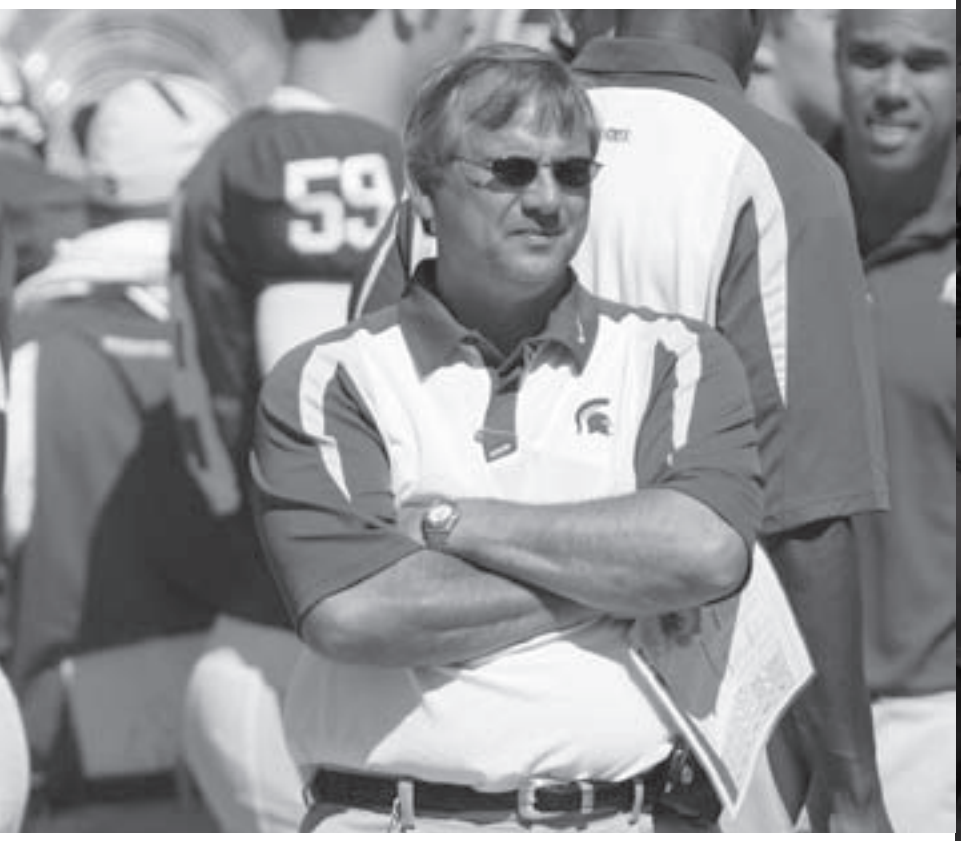
DINO FOLINO

DIRECTOR OF PERSONNEL/PLAYER DEVELOPMENT & RELATIONS

SEVENTH SEASON

Coach Dantonio on Dino Folino:

"Dino Folino spent seven years as an assistant coach at Michigan State under George Perles, so he provides a link from the Spartan past to the present and future. With his extensive football background, Dino serves as a consultant in many areas."



Former Spartan assistant coach Dino Folino enters his seventh year as director of personnel/player development and relations at Michigan State.

Folino's responsibilities include coordinating football student-athlete housing and summer jobs program, high school coaches clinics, football fantasy camp and the production schedule for head coach Mark Dantonio's web page. In addition, he serves as the football office's liaison to National Football League scouts, student-athlete support services, sports marketing department, MSU Football Players Association and Michigan High School Football Coaches Association.

Prior to accepting a position in athletics administration, he spent 27 years in the college coaching ranks. Folino returned to Michigan State following four years at Vanderbilt (1998-2001), where he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator under Woody Widenhofer.

Folino previously spent seven years as the secondary coach at Michigan State (1988-94) under George Perles. During his tenure, the Spartans made four bowl appearances (1989 Gator, 1989 Aloha, 1990 Sun and 1993 Liberty) and won a share of the 1990 Big Ten championship. In 1994, Michigan State led the Big Ten in passing defense (103.1 rating). In addition, Folino coached three first-team All-Big Ten selections: safety John Miller (1987-88), safety Harlon Barnett (1989) and cornerback Demetrice Martin (1994). Barnett, who now serves as secondary coach under second-year Michigan State head coach Mark Dantonio, also earned first-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 1989.

The Folino Family

BRAD LUNSFORD

DIRECTOR OF EXECUTIVE FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

SECOND SEASON

Brad Lunsford enters his second year as a full-time member of the Spartan football staff as director of executive football operations.

Lunsford's primary responsibilities include coordinating team travel, preseason camp, training table and food services as well as administrative oversight over all practice sessions. In addition, he supervises the comp ticket program for MSU players during the regular season and postseason; develops all administrative manuals for the program; plus assists in planning the yearly calendar as well as camps and clinics. Lunsford also organizes and coordinates all day-to-day football-related activities for head coach Mark Dantonio and serves as the football office's liaison to the athletic communications staff.

The 25-year-old Lunsford spent one year at Delaware State, serving as the school's first director of football operations. Prior to spending the 2006 season at Delaware State, Lunsford worked for five years in the Michigan State football office. From September 2000 to May 2004, he was the assistant to the recruiting coordinator, managing all mailings for high school and junior college film requests, maintaining the program's recruiting database and organizing a nationwide recruiting board.

Coach Dantonio on Brad Lunsford:

"Brad Lunsford is my right-hand man from an administrative standpoint. A Michigan State graduate, he worked here in the football office as both a student assistant and graduate assistant, so he has outstanding working knowledge of the university's infrastructure."

The Lunsford Family: Brad and April.

RANDY GILLON
SPEED COACH
FIRST SEASON

Randy Gillon begins his first season as the speed coach for the Michigan State football program. Gillon currently is in his third season as an assistant coach of the Spartans' track and field team, primarily working with the sprinters and hurdlers.

During his time with the Spartans, Gillon has coached three NCAA regional qualifiers, including Jackie Walton in the 100m hurdles the last two seasons and the 4x100 relay squad in 2008. Also, Gillon mentored Jeremy Orr to a pair of top-three finishes at the 2008 Big Ten Indoor Championships in the 60m and 200m, garnering him All-Big Ten accolades. Two Spartans have set school-records during his reign, including Orr in the indoor 60m and indoor 400m and John Childress in the indoor 60m hurdles.

Prior to his arrival in East Lansing, Gillon worked with the Illinois State track and field program for two years. He began his stint as a volunteer coach, then was promoted to an assistant coach for his second season with the Redbirds. He began his coaching career as a volunteer coach for the Illinois women's track and field team upon graduation.

Gillon previously directed the Prime Function Strength and Rehabilitation Training Systems in Toronto, where he designed and oversaw strength training, weight management, rehabilitation, and general fitness programs for both competitive and non-competitive athletes from various sports. Gillon also served as a consultant to First Line Kinesiologist Inc., providing therapeutic exercises to post-injury individuals.

Gillon is a member of NSCA, USATF, Ontario Kinesiologist Association (OKA) and Ontario Track and Field Association (OTFA), with certifications in kinesiology and strength and conditioning.

Gillon earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2000 and a master's degree in kinesiology with a focus in biomechanics from the University of Illinois in 2002. A three-year letterwinner for the track and field program, Gillon graduated eighth on Illinois' all-time record chart with a time of 14.15 in the 110m high hurdles.

KORT SHANKWEILER
OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT
FIRST SEASON

Kort Shankweiler is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach at Michigan State. He will assist the Spartan offensive staff, working primarily with offensive line coach Dan Roushar.

The 24-year-old Shankweiler arrives in East Lansing, Mich., after spending the 2007 season as wide receivers coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn.

The Greenville, N.C., native earned four letters as a fullback at East Carolina (2003-06). Shankweiler started seven of 13 games in 2006 as the Pirates received an invitation to play South Florida in the Papajohns.com Bowl in Birmingham, Ala. He finished his senior season with six receptions for 26 yards.

His father Steve is the offensive coordinator at East Carolina.

Shankweiler earned bachelor's degrees in history and classical studies from East Carolina in 2006. He is currently working on his master's degree in sports administration at Michigan State.

He was a standout quarterback at J.H. Rose High School in Greenville, throwing for nearly 3,000 yards over his final two seasons. Following his senior year, Shankweiler played in the Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas.

NICK SIATRAS
DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT
SECOND SEASON

Nick Siatras enters his second year at Michigan State as a graduate assistant. The 26-year-old Siatras will assist the Spartan defensive staff, working primarily with defensive line coach Ted Gill.

In 2006, Siatras served as a staff assistant for head coach Mark Dantonio at Cincinnati. On the field, Siatras worked with current Spartan assistant Harlon Barnett and the defensive backs, as well as helping with scout team duties.

During the coaching transition at UC, Siatras was the interim defensive line coach for the Bearcats in the inaugural International Bowl, a 27-24 victory for Cincinnati over Western Michigan.

Siatras was a student intern coach at Ohio State in 2004-05, assisting the secondary and the scout team. He began coaching at Upper Arlington (Ohio) High School in 2003 as an assistant working with the defensive line.

The Youngstown, Ohio, native played offensive and defensive line at Campbell Memorial High School, earning first-team All-Northeast Ohio honors as a senior. He played one season (2000) at center at Youngstown State.

Siatras earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Ohio State in 2006. He is scheduled to receive his master's degree in sports administration from Michigan State in December 2008.

NORMAN BURNS
VIDEO INTERN

Norman Burns is in his first year as a video intern for the Michigan State football program.

Burns has worked in a variety of roles in the Spartan football office since 2005. He served as the assistant director of football operations in 2006 and as an administrative assistant in 2005. In addition, he has worked MSU's summer football camps since 2000.

The 31-year-old Burns previously spent five years coaching at Sexton High School in Lansing, Mich. He coached the freshman team for three years (2000-02) before being promoted to the position of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for two more seasons (2003-04).

He earned his bachelor's degree in parks, recreation and tourism from Michigan State in 2008.

Burns married the former Brienna Alger of Shepherd, Mich., in July 2008.

FERRIS EWAYS
VIDEO INTERN

Ferris Eways begins his first season as a video intern for the Spartan football program.

The 26-year-old Eways spent three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Centreville High School in Clifton, Va. (2004-06). During the summer of 2005, he served as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Virginia Kings, a semi-pro team in the North American Football League. Eways also interned for three years in the strength and conditioning program for the National Football League's Washington Redskins (2003, 2005-06).

The Centreville, Va., native spent the 2000 season on the Towson University roster as a wide receiver.

Eways earned his bachelor's degree in sports management/business administration from Towson in 2004. He is currently pursuing his master's degree in sports administration at Michigan State.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

THE BCS IS:

• The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement for post-season college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

• The bowl games participating are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game which will be played each year at one of the bowl sites.

• The BCS is managed by the commissioners of the 11 NCAA Division I-A conferences, the director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame, and representatives of the bowl organizations. The conferences are Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt, Pacific 10, Southeastern and Western Athletic.

• The conference commissioners and the Notre Dame athletics director make decisions regarding all BCS issues, in consultation with an athletics directors advisory group and subject to the approval of a presidential oversight committee whose members represent all 117 Division 1-A programs.

• The five BCS games are part of the overall bowl structure. All bowl games provide meaningful season-ending opportunities to teams.

• As one conference commissioner said, "the celebration that occurs among the student-athletes, coaching staff and fans at the end of each bowl games is an indication of the importance of all bowl games."

• The BCS places great premium on the regular season of college football. Football weekends are an important ingredient in the overall college experience-going well beyond simply what occurs in the athletics department. A significant amount of the revenue that supports all athletic programs is generated by regular-season football. And so it is of great importance that the regular season remains strong and vibrant.

• The top two teams were matched in bowl games infrequently before the BCS, when conferences were contractually obligated to certain games and there was no flexibility to attempt to match the top teams.

• The BCS conferences have a contract with Fox Sports to televise the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls through 2010 and the National Championship Games through 2009. ABC has an agreement to continue to televise the 2010 National Championship Game and the Rose Bowl through 2014.

THE BCS IS WORKING:

The BCS is succeeding. The nation's No. 1 and No. 2 teams met only eight times in bowl games in the 57 seasons between 1936 and 1992, when the "bowl coalition" (a predecessor of the BCS) was created. No. 1 and No. 2 have met eight times in the 15 years since 1992. In the nine-year history of the BCS, the AP's No. 1 and No. 2 have met six times.

REVENUE

Before the BCS was created, conferences without automatic berths in the "major" bowl games received no revenue from those games. In the first nine years of the BCS system, more than $70 million was distributed to conferences that do not have an annual automatic berth in the system.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

The total economic impact in the host cities from the five BCS games in January 2008, was estimated at more than $1.2 billion.

Drew Stanton accounted for a school-record 410 total yards in Michigan State's 51-17 Homecoming victory over No. 19 Minnesota in 2004. Stanton became the first quarterback in Spartan history to throw for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game.

Devin Thomas had a career-best 13 receptions for 148 yards and a touchdown in Michigan State's 52-27 Homecoming victory over Indiana in 2007. His 13 catches tied the second-best single-game total in Spartan history (Plaxico Burress: 13 vs. Florida in 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl).

DUFFY DAUGHTERY
FOOTBALL BUILDING

The Duffy Daugherty Building, located across the street from Spartan Stadium, is named after the legendary Spartan coach who went 109-69-5 from 1954-1972 to become the winningest coach in program history.

In 2006, the grass practice fields behind the Duffy Daugherty Football Building were completely renovated to better mimic the Kentucky bluegrass playing surface in Spartan Stadium. In addition, a 50-yard infill field, manufactured by General Sports Turf (Rochester, Mich.), was installed at the southwest corner of the practice fields.

In June 2002, AstroPlay, a new concept in synthetic turf, was installed in the indoor practice facility. The $310,000 surface is grass-like from concept to performance. Unlike previous generations of artificial turf, AstroPlay is not abrasive. The grass-like, polyethylene fiber matrix is filled with rubber granules.

The Duffy Daugherty Football Building underwent its first major overhaul prior to the 1997 football season. The construction added 17,000-square feet to the complex, more than doubling the facility's original size from its opening in 1979. Financing for the $5 million construction and renovation project was provided entirely by Stadium Club seating in Spartan Stadium.

SPARTAN TRAINING

PREPARING TO WIN

"Total Conditioning" best describes the ultimate goal of the Spartan Strength and Conditioning Program under the direction of Ken Mannie and Tommy Hoke. It begins with the challenging and aggressive 4th Quarter Program in the winter and continues through the heat of the summer with the Bottom Line Program.

The year-round approach adhered to by the Spartans addresses all of the key areas of physical development and enhanced performance: speed and power improvement, increased overall strength, flexibility, agility, cardiorespiratory conditioning and endurance, skill specificity, and nutritional counseling and monitoring.

Michigan State football players train in a highly-organized, structured, disciplined, and intense environment with a high priority placed on steady progression. The weight room atmosphere emphasizes a championship work ethic, proper instruction and supervision, and safe, proven exercise techniques.

The 9,000-square-foot Spartan Weight Room, located in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building, houses the very best strength and conditioning equipment on the market. Soon to be expanded to close to 15,000-square feet, the already outstanding weight room will be one of the elite training facilities in the nation after the renovation.

Attention also is continually given to the controllable factors in creating and maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Ongoing educational efforts, guidance, and counseling to assist the players with informed decision making during their football careers and throughout their adult lives are staples in the Michigan State Spartan Football Program.

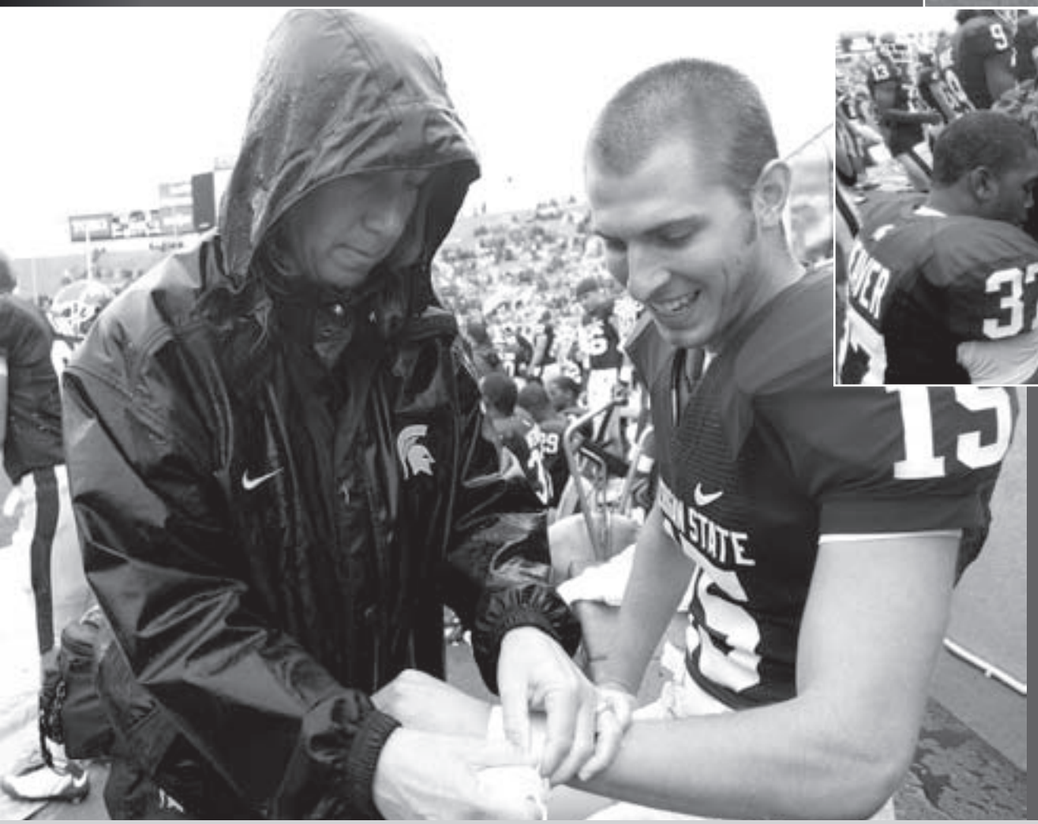
SPORTS MEDICINE

Injuries are a part of sports - they come with the touchdowns and big tackles. Dealing with athletic injuries falls into the capable hands of the MSU Sports Medicine staff.

Located in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building, the Sports Medicine staff is comprised of a team of surgeons, doctors, certified athletic trainers and a cast of students who aspire to be the athletic trainers of the future. In its 2002 College Football Preview, Sports Illustrated rated the Duffy Daugherty training room as one of the nation's ultimate facilities.

The philosophy of the Sports Medicine staff is two-fold: to help prevent injuries as much as possible through effective preventative programs, and to facilitate an effective rehabilitation program after an injury. In all cases, the ultimate well-being of each individual is considered the top priority.



In its 2002 College Football Preview, Sports Illustrated featured Michigan State's training room as one of the nation's ultimate facilities. The training room features a hydrotherapy station and a treadmill with suspension equipment, which allows student-athletes to rehab with reduced stress on their joints. The training room also includes cold-pool spas and various other therapy equipment and modalities.

MEDIA EXPOSURE

A NATIONALLY RESPECTED PROGRAM AND TOP MEDIA DRAW

Michigan State is a popular choice for national and regional television coverage. Since 1995, the Spartans have played in front of a television audience on 140 occasions, an average of nearly 11 TV appearances per season. Michigan State enters the 2008 season with a streak of 63-consecutive live TV appearances (games televised regionally or nationally since November 2002).

Approximately 18 million people watched Spartan football games on TV in 2007, while the Spartan Sports Network reached an average radio audience of 385,500 per game last fall.

In 2005, ESPN's College GameDay made its fourth appearance in East Lansing, Mich., since 1997, covering the regular-season finale against Penn State in Spartan Stadium. In 2004, ESPN2's Cold Pizza produced four live segments from inside Spartan Stadium the day before the MSU-Notre Dame game.

Michigan State's media exposure truly ranks among the nation's elite programs. Spartan football enjoys the benefit of daily coverage in Detroit, the nation's 11th-largest television market. MSU's television coverage includes two other top-ranked markets: Grand Rapids/Kalamazoo/Battle Creek (No. 39) and Flint/Saginaw/Bay City (No. 66).

It also is difficult to match Michigan State's print media coverage. Five of the nation's top 160 newspapers, based upon reported circulation, assign writers and columnists to cover the Spartan football beat, including The Detroit News/Free Press (No. 20), The Grand Rapids Press (No. 76), The Flint Journal (No. 124) and Lansing State Journal (No. 155).

Weekly press conferences are held on campus, so that the media can get its fill of Spartan notes and quotes. Nearly 300 press credentials are issued to newspaper and magazine writers plus television and radio personalities on Spartan game days.

Fans with access to the internet keep up to date with Spartan football by visiting the official Michigan State athletics web site at www.msuspartans.com. The web site features a wealth of information on MSU football, including game results and stats, media guide contents, weekly press releases, player features, photo galleries and video highlight clips plus live radio broadcasts and live in-game statistics. The web site averaged 1.5 million page views per month in 2007-08, including nearly 224,000 uniquevisitors per month. In addition, CoachDantonio.com, a site featuring the latest videos on the Spartan football program, launched in spring 2008.

MICHIGAN STATE ENTERS THE 2008 SEASON WITH A STREAK OF 63-CONSECUTIVE LIVE TV APPEARANCES.

ESPN'S COLLEGE GAMEDAY HAS MADE FOUR APPEARANCES AT MICHIGAN STATE.

BIG TEN NETWORK

BIG TEN TELEVISION AGREEMENTS

Over the last few years, the Big Ten has reached a series of milestone media agreements to provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever, including extensions with CBS (for basketball) and ABC/ESPN (for football, basketball and volleyball) and the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. The conference's new media agreements will result in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally beginning with the 2007-08 academic year, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

ABC/ESPN

In June 2006, the Big Ten signed a new 10-year national rights contract with ABC/ESPN. Big Ten action has been featured on ABC since 1966 and on ESPN since 1979, the network's first year. The new agreement, which begins during the 2007-08 season, includes up to 41 televised Big Ten football games – up to 17 on ABC and up to 25 on ESPN or ESPN2. In addition, all regional afternoon football games aired on ABC will be aired by ESPN/ESPN2 in outer-markets, making these games nationally available. Additionally, through ESPN's collection of new media outlets such as ESPN.com, Mobile ESPN, ESPN360 and ESPN VOD, fans will receive live events (including simulcasts), extended video highlights including in-progress games, features and more. Big Ten coverage will also be available on ESPN Classic and throughout the world through ESPN International.

BIG TEN NETWORK

In June 2006, the Big Ten announced the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. Available to all cable and satellite providers nationwide, with most programs offered in stunning high-definition television (HDTV), the network will allow fans to see their home teams, regardless of where they live.

The network is led by President Mark Silverman, a former Disney executive who came to the network after serving as the general manager and senior vice president of ABC Cable Networks Group since April 2004, managing the company's equity in such channels as Lifetime Television, A&E Network and the History Channel, each of which recorded their best financial performance in 2005. Silverman was also responsible for developing and launching new cable channels, shows and other key initiatives.

The Big Ten Network launches its inaugural season in August 2007 with football, men's and women's basketball, a nightly studio show, classics and coaches shows, along with more Olympic sporting events and exposure for women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network. In June 2007, the Big Ten announced that the Big Ten Network will become the first national network to commit to "event equality" for men's and women's sports on all network-controlled media within the first three years of launch. This dedication to "event equality" highlights the Big Ten's ongoing dedication to gender equity, which is aligned with the commitment of conference institutions to provide fairness for all female student-athletes.

The programming on the Big Ten Network and alternative network-controlled platforms will include, but is not limited to:

- More than 35 football games each season
- More than 105 regular season men's basketball games
- A nightly studio show including segments from each campus
- Women's sports, including basketball, volleyball, soccer and softball
- More than 170 Olympic sporting events including baseball, soccer, tennis, volleyball, swimming, diving and more
- Classic games and historical footage from ESPN and ABC libraries
- Original campus programming produced by Big Ten member universities showcasing their academic excellence, talented students and award-winning programs
- Weekly coaches shows

Located in the historic Montgomery Ward building in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first national television network to call the largest city in the Midwest its home. The original section of the building was designated as a historic landmark in 2000 for its significant role in American retail history. The space includes two studios and three control rooms as well as a 20,000 square-foot office space.

In May 2007, the Big Ten Network announced its first on-air hire, signing ESPN college sports expert Dave Revsine to be its lead studio host. Revsine joined ESPN in October 1996 as an anchor for ESPNews and filled a variety of roles for the network over the past 10 years. The Northwestern graduate has anchored SportsCenter, hosted ESPN Radio's College GameDay for the last six years and hosted ESPN Radio's coverage of several BCS Championship games. He also hosted studio halftimes for basketball and co-hosted ESPN's coverage of the last two men's Final Fours.

In addition to airing more coverage of Big Ten sports than ever before, the Big Ten Network will also provide numerous benefits to communities around the Big Ten. Those include increased exposure for women's sports, providing positive role models for girls; a greater economic impact to the communities from added sporting event production, with the potential to generate higher attendance; and greater national exposure for the excellence that surrounds the academic endeavors of Big Ten universities, some of the most highly regarded in the nation. Also, an internship program at each of the 11 universities will offer students training for careers in sports, television and entertainment.

The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks. For more information regarding the Big Ten Network, visit www.BigTenNetwork.com.

SPARTAN SPORTS NETWORK

For the ninth consecutive season, the Spartan Sports Network (Holt, Mich.) will produce and distribute Michigan State football broadcasts to 39 affiliates throughout the state, including flagship stations WJIM Radio (AM 1240)/WMMQ (FM 94.9) in Lansing and WJR Radio (AM 760) in Detroit. Winner of six "Best of Category" Awards for 2007 programming from the Michigan Association of Broadcasters, the Spartan Sports Network is the state's largest and most listened to sports radio network.

George Blaha has anchored Spartan football broadcasts as play-by-play voice for over three decades. A 2008 inductee into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame, Blaha is a Michigan broadcast icon, recently completing his 32nd season as radio and television play-by-play voice of the National Basketball Association's Detroit Pistons. The longest tenured play-by-play broadcaster in the state, he has been the recipient of many prestigious awards, including Michigan Sports Broadcaster of the Year (1998 and 2007) from the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. In 2002, he also was presented the Ty Tyson Award for "Excellence in Sports Broadcasting" by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.

Born in Detroit, Blaha was raised in Marshalltown, Iowa, and Grayling, Mich. He and his father attended Michigan State's first-ever Big Ten football game, played at Iowa in 1953. Blaha earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Notre Dame in 1966 and later received his MBA from Michigan.

Jim Miller, a three-year starter at quarterback for Coach George Perles at Michigan State from 1991-93, enters his third season as color analyst for the Spartan Sports Network. Miller still ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in pass attempts (fifth at 746), pass completions (second at 467), completion percentage (second at .629) and passing yards (fifth at 5,037). As a senior, Miller shared team MVP honors after completing 215-of-336 passes (.640) for 2,269 yards and nine touchdowns. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection from 1990-92, he earned his bachelor's degree in supply chain management from Michigan State in 2002. Prior to signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Michigan State in February 1989, Miller earned All-America and all-state honors at Kettering High School in Waterford, Mich.

A sixth-round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1994 National Football League Draft, Miller threw for 6,387 yards and 36 TDs during his nine-year pro career (Pittsburgh, 1995-96; Atlanta, 1997; Chicago, 1998-2002; New England, 2004). He earned 27 career starts at quarterback, compiling a 15-11 record as a starter in Chicago. In five seasons with the Bears, Miller recorded three 300-yard passing games. In his first career start against Minnesota on Nov. 14, 1999, he completed 34-of-48 throws for 422 yards and three scores. His 422 passing yards represent the fourth-highest single-game total in Chicago history. In 2001, Miller led the Bears' charge to the playoffs, posting an 11-2 record as a starter during the regular season while establishing career highs in pass attempts (395), pass completions (228), passing yards (2,299) and TDs (13). In 2002, he threw for 1,944 yards while matching his career best with 13 TD tosses. Miller owns JMK Custom Homes in Clarkston, Mich.

THE MARK DANTONIO SHOW

The Spartan Sports Network produces and distributes Mark Dantonio's weekly radio program Thursdays from 7-8 p.m. ET. Originating from Reno's East at 1310 Abbot Road in East Lansing, Spartan play-by-play announcer George Blaha and Terry Braverman co-host this live show, featuring insight from Coach Dantonio, special guests, features and phone calls. The Mark Dantonio Show can be heard locally on flagship station WJIM Radio (AM 1240) and WMMQ (FM 94.9).

Former Michigan State All-Big Ten center Jason Strayhorn begins his third season as the sideline reporter for the Spartan Sports Network. A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Strayhorn started 24 consecutive games at center for Coach Nick Saban in 1997-98. As a senior, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media after grading out as a winner (better than 70 percent) in 11 of the 12 games in 1998. The former team captain also received the Up Front Award as the team's outstanding interior lineman in 1998, consistently posting the unit's top grade for pass protection by not allowing a sack the entire season. Strayhorn turned in one of the best performances of his career in MSU's 28-24 victory over top-ranked Ohio State in Columbus in 1998.

He was selected Spartan Offensive Player of the Week after grading out 80 percent overall against the Buckeyes, including 89 percent in his pass-blocking assignments.

Strayhorn, who received his bachelor's degree in business management from Michigan State in 1998, is a President's Club Banker at Quicken Loans.

Will Tieman returns for his ninth year on the Spartan football broadcast team, serving as the broadcast host. During home games at Spartan Stadium, Tieman broadcasts from the network's on-field set, located in the north end zone. His other football-related activities include: hosting a daily statewide series, called "In the Huddle with Mark Dantonio" and handling play-by-play duties for the national broadcasts of the Motor City and International Bowls. For the 18th year, Tieman serves as host for the syndicated series, "This Week in College Football and Basketball" series. The Michigan Association of Broadcasters honored Tieman for "Best Network Play-by-Play" for his work on the 2007 Motor City Bowl.

MSU

WALK-ON TRADITION

Michigan State has had a proud tradition of walk-ons playing for the Green and White. From future captains to starters to contributors, walk-ons have made an impact for the Spartans. Just last season, Travis Key, who entered the program as a walk-on in 2004, was named team captain and started eight games. The hard work and perseverance of walk-ons can be a rewarding experience, all while helping the team achieve success.

STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

Academic, personal, and professional support are essential to college success. At MSU, Student-Athlete Support Services helps student-athletes reach their full potential.

Our philosophy is to offer an academic support program that will assist all student-athletes with the transition to college and integrate with the total university. This all-encompassing support continues throughout the student-athlete's collegiate career, until the day he or she receives a diploma, lands a job, or enters graduate school. Academic counseling, career exploration, planning and placement, and academic assistance through tutorial programs are just some of the ways we encourage student success.

Being proactive rather than reactive, our staff does not wait for an academic crisis to occur. We gather important background information and build an academic profile on each student-athlete, assessing his or her needs in advance. We also stay informed on the daily progress of each student-athlete.

Freshmen and transfer student-athletes encounter a major transition when making the switch from high school or community college to a university. These students, while adjusting to their new routines, receive extra attention and support.

College is not easy. But with hard work and dedication from both the student-athlete and the support staff, the student-athlete can have a successful college experience.

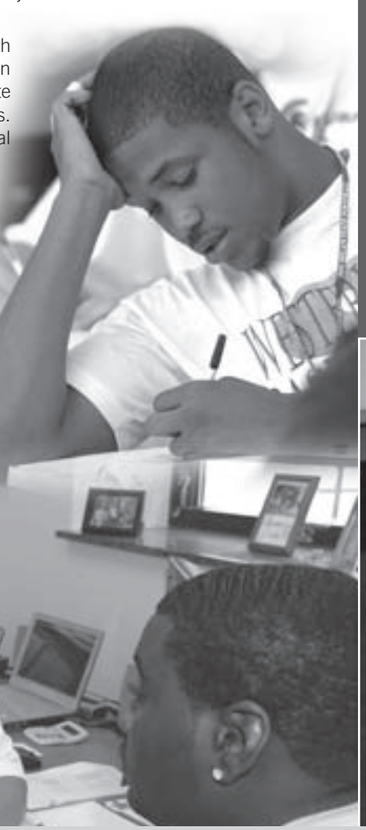
There are a total of 13 staff members to assist in and work with the following:

- Priority registration
- Track academic progress
- Monitor grades
- Provide an individualized program for each student-athlete
- Conduct eligibility meetings
- Provide learning specialists services

The Clara Bell Smith Academic Center is named after the mother of Steve Smith, a former MSU basketball All-American who played 14 seasons in the National Basketball Association. Smith donated $2.5 million to the $7.5 million facility, the largest gift ever by a professional athlete to any college or university.

"I encourage every student-athlete to take advantage of the resources provided by the Clara Bell Smith Student-Athlete Academic Center. It doesn't matter if you're a 4.0 student or someone battling to maintain eligibility – there are programs offered that can benefit everyone in the classroom. Each student-athlete has different needs and the academic support staff will help you identify and address those specific needs. Personally, I benefited from the programs available to assist in time management. In addition, the tutorial and professional development programs are outstanding."

— Drew Stanton, Detroit Lions



THE CLARA BELL SMITH ACADEMIC CENTER

The center is a 31,000-square-foot academic facility that was funded by private donations.

Amenities include:

- Structured study area
- Quiet study areas
- Computerized check-in system
- 10 individual meeting rooms
- Multicultural Center
- Two staffed computer labs
- 60 computers
- Four classrooms
- Wireless Internet Access
- 210-seat multimedia auditorium

"The Clara Bell Smith Student-Athlete Academic Center is a first-class facility that provides all of the tools and resources necessary for academic success. For me, however, it's the people inside that building that are the true difference makers. To the academic support staff at Michigan State, you're more than just a jersey number or a student I.D. number. They take a personal interest in you; help keep you focused and motivated; and track your progress in each and every class. If you're willing to apply yourself, you'll earn a degree during your four- or five-year playing career at Michigan State."

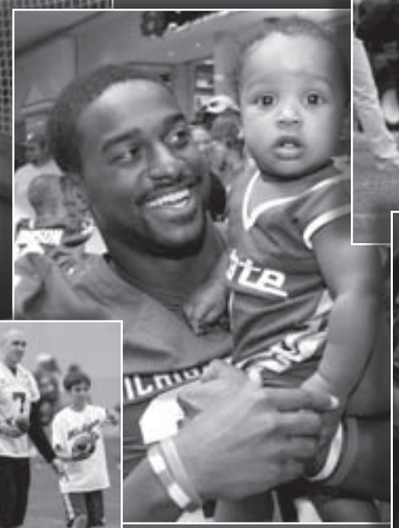
STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The mission of the Student-Athlete Development Program is to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual as a whole person — academically, athletically, and emotionally — and on the changing needs of that individual during college and in the years after graduation.

MSU implements and expands on the vision of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program by using university and community resources to provide student-athletes with the best possible resources in the following areas:



PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Partnership with Athletics Department Training Staff
- Programs on:
  - Drug and Alcohol Awareness
  - Nutrition
  - Anti-Hazing
  - Leadership
- Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) – representatives from each team work together to provide a voice to the Athletics Department and university administration as well as the NCAA.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AND OUTREACH

The PACT (Putting Athletes and Communities Together) program is designed to give student-athletes more opportunities to interact with the Greater Lansing community.

- Charity Lip Sync for Children's Miracle Network
- Pen Pals
- Posters for Patients
- March is Reading Month
- Speaking Engagements/Special Requests
- D.A.R.E. Graduations
- Spartan Buddies
- Teams for Toys

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

- Partner with MSU Career Center
  - Resumes
  - Cover Letters
  - Internships
  - Interviewing
  - Career Fairs
  - Career Development
- Spartan Career Network – network of contacts for student-athletes looking for job shadowing, internship, or job placement
- KIN 171 – Orientation class for freshmen
- Online resume book

MULTICULTURAL PROGRAMS

Our mission is to provide student-athletes with inclusive cultural and diversity experiences that enhance their professional growth and develop their leadership skills. To collaborate with campus resources that elevate the academic success and campus involvement of student-athletes. To create a positive partnership with the community, facilitate learning and provide comprehensive programming.

THIS IS MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

MAKING AN IMPACT AT HOME...AND AROUND THE WORLD.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY IS MAKING A SIGNIFICANT IMPACT IN MICHIGAN AND AROUND THE WORLD, THROUGH WORLD-CLASS ACADEMICS, PIONEERING RESEARCH, AND INNOVATIVE OUTREACH. MSU IS COMMITTED TO SHARING KNOWLEDGE CREATED AT THE UNIVERSITY THAT LEADS TO PRACTICAL SOLUTIONS THAT MAKE A POSITIVE DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF INDIVIDUALS AND IN COMMUNITIES FROM MICHIGAN TO MALAWI.

A LEADING INTERNATIONAL PARTNER

- One of the three largest undergraduate study abroad programs in the nation, with 2,787 students studying abroad in 2005-06; 220 programs inmore than 65 countries on all continents.
- MSU was the largest recipient of USAID funding for international projects in the last half of the 21st century.
- MSU's African Studies Center has been nationally ranked as one of the leading and most comprehensive centers of its kind in the United States.
- MSU aided in the reconstruction of the Rwandan economy by sending experts to educate farmers on how to set up – and sustain – cooperatives that grow premium coffee, now a market staple in Rwanda.

RESEARCH THAT IMPROVES LIVES

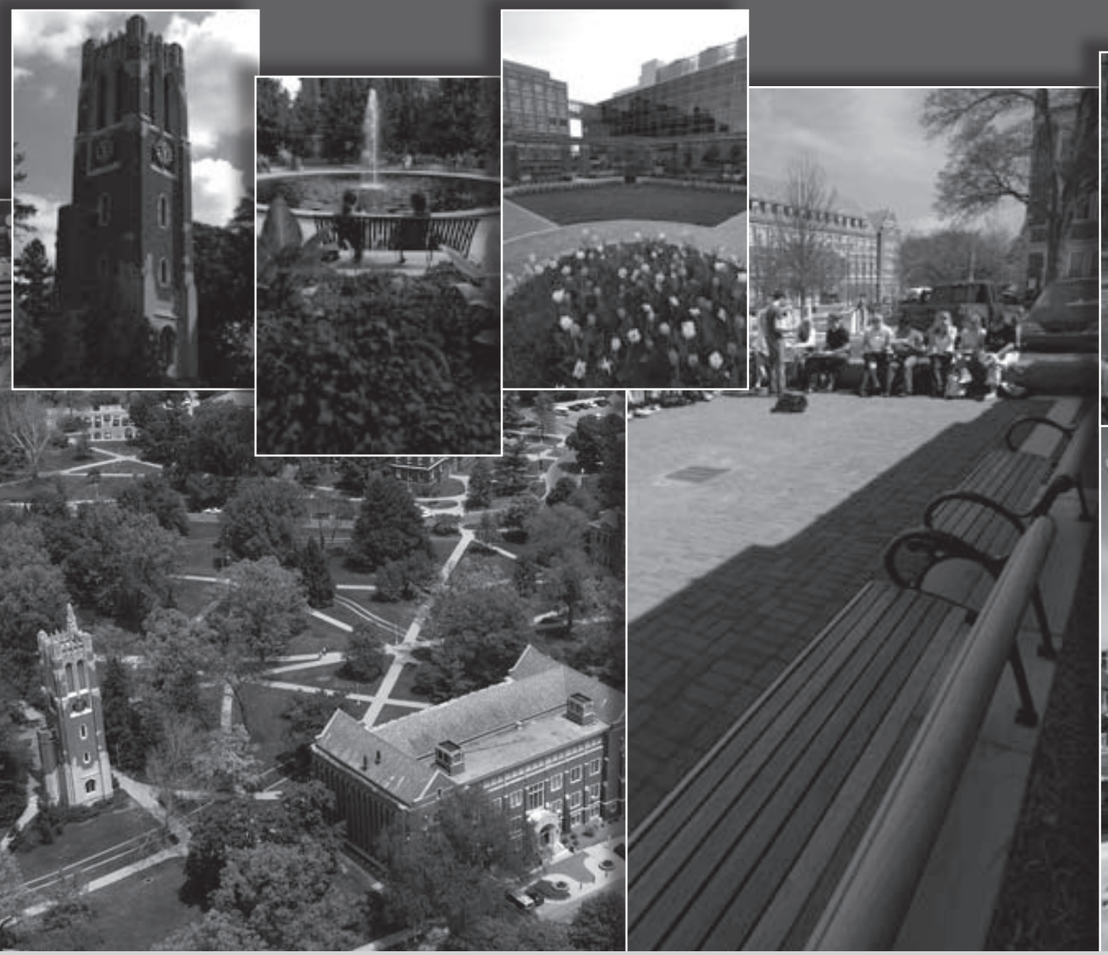
- MSU was selected by the U.S. Department of Energy to take part in a new $125 million bioenergy initiative. MSU will partner with the University of Wisconsin-Madison in establishing the Great Lakes Bioenergy Research Center, one of three in the nation, which will use basic science research aimed at solving some of the most complex problems in converting natural materials to energy.
- MSU's breakthrough discoveries include Cisplatin and Carboplatin, two of the world's leading anti-cancer drugs.
- MSU has one of the top nutritional immunology programs in the country, a cutting-edge discipline studying how the food eaten affects a person's immune system.
- MSU is one of only four universities across the country asked by the Carnegie Annenberg, Rockefeller and Ford foundations to take part in the "Teachers for a New Era" initiative to develop state-of-the-art programs in K-12 teacher education.
- MSU's Diagnostic Center for Population and Animal Health is one of the country's premier veterinary diagnostic laboratories, conducting more than 1.2 million diagnostic tests per year.

STRONGER COMMUNITIES

- MSU Extension has a presence in all 83 counties in Michigan, with more than 700 full-time MSU employees, bringing knowledge-based educational programs to the people of Michigan.
- MSU is one of only five U.S. universities to join the Chicago Climate Exchange in efforts to reduce their carbon emissions.
- Technology developed by an MSU Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station researcher has been licensed to produce new vaccines for various strains of flu, including avian flu.
- The W.K. Kellogg Foundation has awarded a $1.37 million, multiyear grant to MSU as part of an initiative to address childhood nutrition and fitness, vibrant communities, and healthful local food production in Michigan.
- More than 30,000 children and their families participate in educational programs at Wharton Center each season, including Jazz Kats: Jazz for Kids, which uses jazz to teach information in subject matters such as math, social studies, science and music.

TOP RANKINGS AND RECOGNITION

- Ranks No. 30 among America's public universities (U.S. News & World Report)
- One of Top 100 Global Universities (Newsweek/MSNBC rankings)
- Record of Rhodes Scholars has led the Big Ten since the 1960s
- National leader in study abroad participation among public universities; one of only four public universities in the nation that ranks in the top 10 for both study abroad participation and international student enrollment
- Only university in the country with three on-campus medical schools, graduating allopathic (MD) and osteopathic (DO) physicians, as well as veterinarians (DVMs)
- Fifth largest producer overall of Peace Corps volunteers since the organization was founded in 1961 (2008 Peace Corps rankings)
- Graduate programs in elementary and secondary education No. 1 in the nation for the 14th year in a row (U.S. News & World Report)
- Graduate program in nuclear physics No. 2 in the nation (U.S. News & World Report)
- College of Osteopathic Medicine No. 7 in primary care (U.S. News & World Report)
- Eli Broad College of Business No. 25 among the nation's business schools and five of its undergraduate specialty programs rank in the top 15 in their respective categories, including supply chain management at No. 2 (U.S. News & World Report)
- One of the nation's top five campuses for sustainability, according to the National Wildlife Federation's Campus Environment 2008 Report Card, which also indicates MSU has the greatest number of exemplary programs in sustainability among colleges and universities in Michigan



BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

The Big Ten Conference is a union of 11 world-class academic institutions who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual have the opportunity to live a Big Life.

STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITIES

Big Ten universities provide approximately $100 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women.

Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.

TOP ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

Big Ten universities are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

Big Ten institutions house on their campuses 10 of the nation's 35 largest academic libraries. Collectively, conference libraries hold more than 70 million book volumes, and institutions work collaboratively to build and share their resources with other Big Ten members.

MORE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS, ABC/ESPN and the Big Ten Network provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever.

In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network devoted to the athletic and academic programs of a single conference. The Big Ten Network launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and became the first new network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million homes in its first 30 days.

In 2007-08, the Big Ten's television partners aired every home football and men's basketball game for the first time in conference history while also providing twice as much national exposure for women's basketball than any other conference during the regular season.

The Big Ten's new media agreements resulted in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally during the 2007-08 academic year, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

Big Ten fans are some of the most supportive in the country, as nearly 7.8 million patrons attended conference home contests during the 2007-08 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.

Over the last 30 seasons, the conference has ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in football, men's basketball and wrestling attendance.

Big Ten institutions have more than 4.2 million living alumni and over 300,000 undergraduate students attending their universities.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

The Big Ten is the only conference in the nation in which every school has captured at least one national title in an NCAA sponsored sport over the last 10 seasons.

The Big Ten has claimed at least four national championships in eight of the last 10 seasons. Big Ten national champions in 2007-08 included Penn State men's and women's volleyball, Iowa wrestling, Ohio State fencing and Northwestern women's lacrosse. The Big Ten has also produced team national crowns in the sports of basketball, cross country, field hockey, football, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, synchronized swimming, tennis and track and field over the last decade.

LEADERSHIP IN GENDER EQUITY

Since 1992, the Big Ten has shown a strong commitment to increasing opportunities for women in sports and exposure of women's athletics by establishing a multi-phased gender equity program. In that time, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams, while expanding the number of women's championships to 13 by adding field hockey, soccer and rowing.

As part of the gender equity action plan, the Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male/female participation goals for student-athletes in 1992. The Big Ten initiated a five-year plan for conference members to commit to a 60 percent/40 percent male-to-female student-athlete participation ratio. This was achieved as a conference by 1997 and 2000 was the first year that all institutions individually met this goal. As part of its commitment to gender equity, the Council of Presidents/Chancellors annually monitors this policy. Over the past five years, the Big Ten has maintained on average a 53 percent/47 percent male-to-female participation ratio.

According to the National Association of Collegiate Women's Athletics Administrators (NACWAA), the Big Ten is one of only two conferences in the nation in which women account for over 50 percent of the head coaching positions and 60 percent of the assistant coaching ranks in women's sports.

BUILDING THE FUTURE

In 1989, the Big Ten created a community outreach program - SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday), which partnered the conference with two Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performances. What began with one school, two grade levels and five classrooms has grown in its 19th year to include grades kindergarten through eighth, encompassing all classes and students at Melody School and Louis Armstrong School.

Following the national tragedy on Sept. 11, 2001, the Big Ten, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund", and the $1 million contribution will be drawn from conference reserves which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular-season television opportunities.

The Big Ten has established numerous community programs surrounding the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, including the Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award Scholarship, the Big Ten Career Fair and the Shoot for the Cure event during the women's tournament that raised over $10,000 for the Indianapolis Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure in its first year.

LOU ANNA K. SIMON, PH.D.
PRESIDENT
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Lou Anna K. Simon is the 20th president of Michigan State University, leading the university's transformation from land-grant to world-grant. Simon served as provost and vice president for academic affairs from 1993-2004, acting as interim president in 2003. She was appointed president by the MSU Board of Trustees in January 2005.

Michigan State's Boldness by Design strategic positioning initiative, announced by Simon in 2005, MSU's sesquicentennial year, challenges the university to redefine itself—and in the process the modern model of the land-grant university—as the premier world-grant university, what a land-grant institution must be for it students, its state, its nation, and its world in the 21st century.

President Simon has a long and distinguished history with Michigan State University. After earning her doctorate in administration and higher education from MSU in 1974, she became a member of the Michigan State faculty and assistant director of the Office of Institutional Research (now the Office of Planning and Budgets). From there, she moved into a variety of administrative roles, including assistant provost for general academic administration during the 1980s and associate provost in the early 1990s.

Simon's commitment to the land-grant tradition of applying knowledge and resources to benefit society locally and around the globe is reflected in her own personal involvement in key initiatives, particularly in the areas of economic development and international engagement.

Simon is a member of the Council on Competitiveness and serves on the Board of Directors for the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC), the American Council on Education (ACE), and the Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U). In addition, she serves on the National Higher Education Security Advisory Board, a group of presidents and chancellors of several prominent U.S. universities that consults regularly with national agencies responsible for security, intelligence, and law enforcement to provide university perspectives.

Simon has served on the State of Michigan Governor's Emergency Financial Advisory Panel and as a member of the Lt. Governor's Commission on Higher Education and Economic Growth (Cherry Commission). She is a member of the Michigan Strategic Economic Investment and Commercialization Board (SEIC), the board of directors of Detroit Renaissance, and a board member of mid-Michigan's economic development foundation, Prima Civitas.

In the area of international engagement, Simon is a member of the American Council on Education (ACE) Commission on International Initiatives and the Partnership to Cut Hunger in Africa Executive Committee.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR
MARK HOLLIS

"We gather and engage our community to teach, support and celebrate our student-athletes in their quest for excellence."

This is the vision Mark Hollis has for the Michigan State athletics department. A Michigan State graduate and veteran Spartan athletics administrator, Hollis assumed the role of MSU's 18th athletics director on Jan. 1, 2008, succeeding Ron Mason. Hollis was named athletics director-designate on Sept. 12, 2007, and teamed with Mason in the transition throughout the fall of 2007.

Hollis brings more than 20 years of athletics administration experience, either at the school or conference level, to his new position. His well-rounded background has led to his knowledge of all areas within an athletics department, including marketing, financial administration, television negotiations, fund-raising, game operations, facility management, personnel policy, corporate interaction, sports management and public relations.

Hollis, a 1985 MSU graduate, returned to his alma mater in 1995. Since then, he has been a critical component of the athletic department executive management staff, helping guide the department through short- and long-range plans. In his first year as athletics director, six winter and spring sports earned team berths to their respective NCAA Championships, while individuals saw action in four more NCAA Championships. The men's golf and women's rowing teams claimed Big Ten Championships and the men's basketball program reached the Sweet 16 for the seventh time in the last 11 years. This success propelled Michigan State to a 29th-place finish in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup, the highest showing for the department since 2003.

Student-athletes excelled not only on the playing field, but in the classroom as well. For the first time in department history, a cumulative grade-point average of over a 3.0 was reached in the spring semester. The term GPA of 3.0038 was the highest in the history of the department, breaking a 10-year record. In the spring semester alone, 313 student-athletes achieved a 3.0 or highest semester GPA, while 43 student-athletes had a 4.0 semester. In addition, 125 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

Prior to his official appointment as athletics director, Hollis played a lead role in two significant head coaching searches during the 2006-07 year. He spearheaded the effort to hire Mark Dantonio as football coach, which resulted in the football team's first bowl appearance in four years with a bid to the 2007 Champs Sports Bowl. He also provided major assistance in the hiring of women's basketball coach Suzy Merchant in the spring of 2007. Hollis' first hire as athletics director arrived on July 2, 2008, when he tabbed Jake Boss Jr. to direct the Spartan baseball program.

Spartan athletic facilities have been upgraded at an unprecedented rate this decade, and will only continue to improve under Hollis. In August 2008, the Spartans moved into one of the nation's finest football facilities, as a $15 million expansion and renovation project for the Duffy Daugherty Football Building was completed. MSU alumni Robert and Julie Skandalaris of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., donated $5 million as the lead gift for the facility expansion and upgrade. The Skandalaris Center includes new team, staff and position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a hall of history. In addition, the construction plans feature an expanded weight room that will increase in size from 9,000 to 16,500-square feet. The men's and women's soccer programs are playing in brand-new DeMartin Stadium this fall, a state-of-the-art 2,500-seat facility that will enable MSU to host conference and national tournaments. The baseball program will also move into a new home in the spring of 2009 after the department received a $4 million donation toward the construction of a 2,500-seat ballpark.

As a senior associate athletics director, Hollis oversaw all external relations for the MSU athletics department. Included in this group are marketing and promotions, community relations, special-event fund-raising, sports information, ticket operations, spirit groups, broadcast services and corporate sponsorships. He also had sports management supervision of the men's basketball program, while also supervising the cheerleading, dance team and band programs.

Hollis has been recognized by his peers as one of the best in the business. In 2002, he was named recipient of the National Marketer of the Year Award as selected by the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). Under his direction, Michigan State has enjoyed increases in ticket revenues, including five years of sold-out football seasons and nearly 150 consecutive sellouts in men's basketball. He was successful in negotiating a $2 million donation to the university for the construction of the Berkowitz Basketball Complex, providing both the men's and women's basketball programs with one the nation's top office complexes.

One of Hollis' greatest strengths is his ability to "dream big" in an effort to create greater exposure, not just for the Michigan State Athletics Department but for Michigan State University as a whole. He conceptualized "The BasketBowl," establishing a world-record attendance of 78,129 for a basketball game between Michigan State and Kentucky at Detroit's Ford Field. The concept of placing the court in the middle of the field in a domed stadium was used by the NCAA at the 2008 Midwest Regional and will be utilized at the 2009 Final Four. Michigan State University earned net revenues of $1 million from the event. Similarly, he executed the "Cold War" ice hockey game between Michigan State and Michigan, drawing a record crowd of 74,554 to an outdoor hockey game in Spartan Stadium.

On Oct. 13, 2005, Michigan State University and WJR - 760 AM announced a five-year agreement to carry Spartan football and men's basketball games, along with coaches' radio shows. Hollis played a leading role in finding MSU athletics a home on the 50,000-watt Detroit radio station, known as the "Great Voice of the Great Lakes." It was an agreement that benefited more than just athletics as WJR regularly promotes the academic accomplishments of the university in addition to broadcasting sporting events.

His creativity and negotiation skills have helped Michigan State enhance its postseason bowl appearances in a very competitive environment. During his time at MSU, the Spartans have appeared in the Champs Sports Bowl, Citrus Bowl, Alamo Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Sun Bowl, Independence Bowl and the Silicon Valley Football Classic. He is also a key component during men's basketball postseason play, having been a part of 11 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament and four Final Fours, handling many operational logistics.

Prior to returning to Michigan State, Hollis spent two years at the University of Pittsburgh as assistant and associate athletic director and also worked for the Western Athletic Conference.

Hollis earned his bachelor of arts degree in communication from Michigan State in 1985, where he served as a basketball team manager under Jud Heathcote. In 1992, he earned his MBA in business administration from the University of Colorado.

He and his wife Nancy, have a daughter, Katy, and two sons, T.R. and Michael.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

The Michigan State University Office of Compliance Services is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that educates student-athletes, prospective student-athletes, institutional employees, community members and boosters about the importance of adhering to NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules. The commitment to compliance ensures institutional control over the department of athletics. The existence of a successful compliance program depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes and boosters to be cognizant of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules.

WHAT IS COMPLIANCE?

At Michigan State University, the Office of Compliance Services works within the department of athletics and the University to ensure MSU's compliance with all applicable NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules. In doing so, the compliance office is charged with the following tasks:

- Educating administrators, coaches, staff, prospective student-athletes, current student-athletes and boosters about NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules;
- Developing monitoring systems to ensure compliance with NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules (e.g., recruiting, academic eligibility, financial aid, awards and benefits, amateurism and agents).
- Investigating and reporting violations of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules.

ARE YOU A BOOSTER?

You are a booster if you are or ever have:

- Been a member of a booster organization that supports MSU athletics (e.g., Downtown Coaches Club, Rebounders Club, Fast Break Club);
- Made any financial contributions to the athletics department (e.g., Spartan Fund);
- Been involved in promoting MSU's athletics program;
- Been a season ticket holder; or
- Provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their relatives or friends.

You can become a booster if you provide benefits to prospects, student-athletes, their relatives or friends and any of the following statements are true:

- The relationship between the athlete (or parents of the athlete) and the individual providing the benefits developed as a result of the athlete's participation in athletics or their reputation as an athlete;
- The relationship began only after the athlete become a prospect;
- The relationship began only after the athlete had achieved notoriety due to his or her athletic ability or reputation;
- The pattern of benefits increased after the athlete attained notoriety as a talented athlete.

ONCE A BOOSTER ALWAYS A BOOSTER

Once an individual is identified as a booster, the person retains that identity FOREVER! This is true even if the individual no longer contributes to, or is involved with MSU's athletics program.

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

A prospective student-athlete (prospect) is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade. Student-athletes enrolled in preparatory schools and two-year colleges are also considered prospects. An individual remains a prospect even after he/she signs a National Letter of Intent.

THE RECRUITING DO'S AND DONT'S

Only MSU coaches may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters MAY NOT make any recruiting contacts with prospective student-athletes. Boosters are prohibited from the following:

- DO NOT telephone, write or make in-person contact with a prospect for recruiting purposes.
- DO NOT contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.
- DO NOT become involved in making arrangements for a prospect, the prospect's relatives or friends to receive money or financial aid of any kind.
- DO NOT visit a prospect's school to acquire films or transcripts in an attempt to evaluate the prospect's academic or athletics eligibility.
- DO NOT have contact with a prospect, their relatives or friends during any of their visits to MSU's campus.
- DO NOT contact student-athletes enrolled in other four-year institutions regarding the possibility of transferring to MSU.

Even though there are many rules prohibiting your involvement with prospects and the recruiting process, as a booster you are permitted to do the following:

- Notify MSU coaching staff about noteworthy prospects in your area.
- Attend a prospect's athletics event on your own initiative, provided no contact with the prospect, the prospect's parents or coach occurs.
- Continue existing friendships, provided solicitation of a prospect's enrollment does not occur.

WHAT IS AN EXTRA BENEFIT?

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by a MSU employee or booster to provide a prospect, student-athlete or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible benefits include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Gifts of cash, clothing, equipment or any other tangible item;
- A special discount, payment arrangement or credit on any purchase or service;
- Loan of money or cosigning of loans;
- A vehicle, use of a vehicle, or any transportation expenses;
- Free or reduced-cost services, purchases or rentals;
- Entertainment on- or off-campus; or
- Free or reduced-cost rent or housing.

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES?

MSU is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster provides an impermissible benefit to a prospect, student-athlete, their relatives or friends, MSU may be subject to penalties from the NCAA and Big Ten Conference. When a violation occurs, regardless of intention, it can:

- Jeopardize the eligibility of prospective and current student-athletes;
- Result in the MSU athletics program being penalized by the NCAA and/or Big Ten Conference; and
- Cause you to lose benefits or privileges associated with the athletics department (i.e., booster club membership, ticket privileges)

QUESTIONS?

The above information is a brief overview of compliance and rules pertaining to boosters and their interactions with prospective student-athletes. If you have any questions about any NCAA, Big Ten or institutional rules, please contact the Office of Compliance Services at (517) 432-5510.
